Woman Found Dead in Bed Poisoned by Morphine.

Miss Adelle E. Davis, 35 years old, a hair dresser, living in room 304, St. Paul building, Twelfth and Clay streets, was found dead in bed at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Death is believed to have been due to morphine poisonings. Mystery surrounds the case and the police are working on every detail, not satisfied that the a priori theory of suicide will be borne out.

The body of the woman was found by E. H. Stock, a travelling salesman for the firm of Andrew Jacobson & Company.

who immediately notified the morgue officials. Stock had called on the woman last night and found her ill. His subsequent visit today confronted him with her dead body.

Dr. G. H. Derrick was immediately summoned and declared that death was probably caused by morphine.

Two unopened letters lay on the woman's table, one addressed to Mrs. Alberta Davis, 72 Santa Clara avenue.

and another addressed to J. C. Guyle, P. O. box 562, Sacramento. There was also a memorandum to call up Oakland 7811.

The woman was employed part of the week in San Francisco and gave the rest of her time to private customers here.

The police have decided to question Stock, and other inmates of the St. Paul, as no reason has been assigned for the woman's wishing to take her own life.

FAIRBANKS DENIES HE QUIT RACE

Declares Alleged Statements as to Presidency Unfounded.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Oct. 25.—Before leaving his special train here today Vice-President Fairbanks made clear his position with reference to quotations from certain St. Louis and New York newspapers to the effect that he was not a candidate, actively or passively, for the presidency. He said that while in St. Louis he refused positively to discuss politics and that any statement alleged to have come from him in reference to national politics on the presidency was entirely unfounded.

FAST TRAIN TURNS OVER

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 26.—The Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train from Ashland, Ky., due here at 1:15 p. m., was derailed at Thompson station, twenty-five miles east of here. The train turned completely over. Many are said to be injured.

2 Men Crushed Under Tons of Rock.

NILES, Oct. 25.—T. Colozzi, aged 45, and Nick Neanraboich, aged 40, laborers, were suffocated to death this morning when the Western Pacific tunnel near this place caved in.

The cave-in came without warning. Several of the laborers were able to escape, but the two mentioned were pinned beneath tons of rock and earth and crushed to death.

His Pool and Its Millions Calmed the Flurry.

Calmier Tone Is Reported Today and Financial Leaders Say the Worst Is Over.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A pool of $10,000,000 or more was formed at a conference held at the clearing house this afternoon to take care of the money conditions at the stock exchange.

It was confidently believed that this action would tide over the situation completely so far as stock exchange needs were concerned. All today's loans will carry over until Monday.

The bankers pool had about $15,000,000 to use for that purpose. Up to 2:45 p. m. about $12,000,000 had been loaned.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A much calmer tone was apparent in business circles this morning. The success of the relief measures undertaken yesterday by J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, and other prominent financiers, together with the serenity with which the officials of the Trust Company of America met the run of depositors of the institution gave general encouragement to bankers and business men generally that no further trouble was to be feared. The $25,000,000 made up by a pool headed by Mr. Morgan which was sent into the stock market yesterday afternoon, is believed to have given a permanent relief to brokers who were in need of funds with which to carry the stock bought and held on margins for their customers.

BOODLERS SHOW BIG LAPSE OF MEMORY

Grafting Supervisors, Confused by Rogers at the Ford Trial, Make Discrepancies in Testimony.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Six boodling supervisors, a rare collection of unscrupulous crooks, were sources of amusement, occasional pity, but always disgust, to those who assembled in Judge Lawlor's courtroom to hear the morning session of the trial of T. L. Ford, the United Railroads general counsel, who is accused of bribing former Supervisor Phillips.

The boodlers examined this morning were P. M. McGushin, James P. Kelly, Edward I. Walsh, Dr. Charles Boxton, Cornelius J. Harrigan and Fred P. Nicholas. Harrigan was still on the stand when the noon recess was taken.

McGushin, the poetic boodler and bard of the old board of supervisors, was first called. He swore point blank that he had been promised that he would be allowed to remain in office until his term expired at the time he was given the now famous immunity washing.

TESTIMONY DISCREDITED. Kelly's testimony was largely discredited by discrepancies picked out with cleverness by Rogers in the testimony given by the grafter before the Grand Jury and at the last Ford trial. The other four squirmed and wriggled and con-

Stop Big Damage to Berkeley Business Block.

Gold Coin and Other Valuables Were Taken Away by Marauders.

BERKELEY, Oct. 25.—Burglary was committed and arson attempted on the "College Barber Shop," on Center street, at an early hour this morning. The thieves gained entrance by means of a broken window in the rear of the shop. A broken board in the high fence which separates the lot from that of the Commercial School, on Alston way, plainly showed the way they entered the place, and a cigarette butt found on the window sill was thought to have been left by the midnight visitors.

Only the watchfulness and timely prevention of Police-man Elson prevented the town from being swept by a devastating fire which was started to cover up the deed of the burglars. Elson was minding his usual rounds on Center street at 2 o'clock this morning when he noticed (Continued on Page Two.)

SAYS COMING OF FLEET IS WRONG

Count Okuma Declares Proposed Cruise Is Bad Policy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Dr. Louis L. Seaman, ex-surgeon major, United States Army, who was with the Japanese forces, both naval and military, during the Russo-Japanese war, has received a letter from Count Okuma, the Japanese Progressive leader, in which Count Okuma said that the sending of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific is not good diplomacy.

"Foreign newspapers," Count Okuma wrote, "are too pessimistic. The Japanese are convinced that there will be no war. Every case like the San Francisco incident is sure to have a bad effect. I think that the trouble is due to the states sovereignty principle in the United States. The power of the states is too great. They are too independent. The sending of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific is not good diplomacy."

ROBBERS

Grab Money In U. S. SUB-TREASURY

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Two men walked into the Sub-Treasury here this morning, grabbed $9000 that was being paid out to a national bank teller and started to run from the building. Clerks and others gave chase and the two men were so hotly pursued that they threw the money under a street car. Both men were captured and are now in the city hall. One of them carried a revolver. The money was in notes and was all recovered.

HOMELESS QUAKE VICTIMS DYING FROM EXPOSURE

ROME, Oct. 25.—Little additional news was experienced yesterday, but no further damage has been reported. The Pope has sent supplies of money to the clergy of Calabria for the relief of the suffering parishioners and has ordered that the churches be kept open day and night for the use of the homeless. In addition to the funds sent by the Pontiff, the government has forwarded $20,000 to the Calabrian authorities for the use of the relief work and has taken every other step possible to help the sufferers.

ated spectators and since the trial has been under way have been present. Louis Ford, Ford's 15-year-old boy, sat with his father. Porter Ashe was in attendance for the first time in several days.

Henry and O'Garra occupied the prosecution table, and were joined later by Detective Burns with his curled mustache.

McGUSHIN CALLED.

When the Ford trial was resumed this morning Patrick M. McGushin, the bookkeeper, was called to the stand.

"What is your business?" asked Henry.

"Salesman," replied McGushin.

"Have you been in business long?" asked Henry.

"Did you ever speak to you about the trolley matter before the ordinance was passed?" asked Henry.

"Who was it?" asked Henry.

"Who did he say?" asked Henry.

"What would he say?" asked Henry.

"How much?" asked Henry.

"In what kind of money?" asked Henry.

"What denominations?" asked Henry.

"And some fifties, too, I think," asked Henry.

"Was there any less than five?" asked Henry.

BLOW TO PROSECUTION.

This is a blow to the prosecution, as they claim that all the money in the first payment made to the supervisors was small bills, many of them being $1 bills.

"Did you receive any more money from Gallagher?" asked Henry.

"How much?" asked Henry.

"In bills?" asked Henry.

"What denominations?" asked Henry.

"Do you remember the fact that you in connection with the members of the board were used by Mr. Langdon to get you from out of his office?" asked Henry.

"How long was this after you got your second payment?" asked Henry.

"Think it was in October. We had almost given up hope of getting the money," asked Henry.

"Now, wasn't it the first payment that you almost expected of Gallagher?" asked Henry.

"Didn't you say you were worried over the first payment?" asked Henry.

"Over it? It worried me now, that is all," asked Henry.

HAS POOR MEMORY.

McGushin could not fix the date of either the first or second payments. He testified that he had poor memory and did not know the first day he was on the stand. This brought a laugh to Henry's face, who is only present when the "big stick" is being made ready for use.

"Did you ever meet T. L. Ford?" asked Henry.

"Where was it?" asked Henry.

"Ever see William M. Abbott?" asked Henry.

"I have seen him," asked Henry.

"Did you ever meet Patrick Calhoun?" asked Henry.

"No," asked Henry.

In answer to questions, McGushin stated that he knew Gallagher had been spoken to him about the trolley franchise.

"Take the witness," said Henry.

BEGGED HIS VOTE.

"Now, Mr. McGushin," said Rogers, "you say that no one except Gallagher ever spoke to you about the trolley franchise. Isn't it a fact that President Cornelius of the Carmen's Union begged you to vote for it?" asked Henry.

"Well, yes. He did tell me that there were hundreds of men out of work and that the trolley franchise would give them some employment," asked Henry.

"The fact that he had favored the granting of the franchise was called to McGushin's attention by Rogers, who read from a file of newspaper clippings containing an interview with McGushin, in which the bookkeeper had expressed himself as strongly in favor of the granting of the franchise. McGushin stated that that was his attitude at the time the trolley matter came up and that he would have voted for the ordinance under any circumstances."

"Now, Mr. McGushin, you are testifying under an immunity agreement?" asked Henry.

"Yes," asked Henry.

"And is it with the understanding that you will testify to what the prosecution thinks is the truth?" asked Henry.

"Well, I testify to the truth," asked Henry.

TO KEEP OFFICE.

"Your immunity was granted with the understanding that you should testify as the prosecution wished and for this you would not be prosecuted, and that you should be allowed to remain in office. Wasn't that the agreement?" asked Henry.

"It was understood that we were to remain in office until the end of our term," asked Henry.

"You contested your resignation did you not?" asked Henry.

"Well, yes," asked Henry.

"And you were the last to resign?" asked Henry.

"Yes," asked Henry.

Henry then took the witness for re-examination. He questioned McGushin regarding his conversation with Cornelius. McGushin stated that the conversation was trifling, and he did not see how Rogers had learned of it.

"Oh, Burns isn't the only one," said Rogers.

"No, they have fifty or one hundred detectives working for them," said Henry.

"Only five," replied Rogers.

"I know twenty-five of them myself," answered Henry.

"His eyeglasses, magnifying them," broke in Rogers.

CHECKS SIDE REMARKS.

"The court has directed that these side remarks shall cease," said Judge Lawlor, who had endeavored to stop the "big stick" between the attorneys with greater frequency than the other.

McGushin was then excused. His evidence was unsatisfactory to the prosecution and Henry was out of temper by the exceedingly poor memory displayed by the bookkeeper.

Surprise has been occasioned by the fact that despite the fact of the "big stick," the bookkeeper evinces much independence and it is with difficulty that information is wormed out of them.

James F. Kelly, the piano tuning bookkeeper, next took the stand. Henry continued his examination chiefly to the payment of the alleged bribe, the time and place, amounts, and nature of the bills.

Kelly arrived to have a slightly better memory than McGushin. Henry, however, failed to develop anything new in his examination.

On cross-examination Rogers asked the witness regarding the denomination of the bills in the first payment he received. Kelly replied that the bills were fives, tens, twenties and fifties. Rogers asked Kelly if his memory had become suddenly bad, and how it happened he could not remember what he received in the last trial. Reading from the recording of the bookkeeper's testimony in the last case, Rogers pointed out that Kelly had at that time sworn that the bills in the first payment had ranged from tens to one hundred. This discrepancy added to the confusion and was a strong point for the defense.

GIVEN IMMUNITY.

"Have you read your grand jury testimony?" asked Rogers.

"Yes," answered Kelly.

"You have been given immunity, too, and are now testifying under that?" asked Rogers.

"Yes, sir," answered Kelly.

Switching to the matter of his testimony regarding the members of the trolley system after the five Rogers made Kelly admit that he would have voted for the ordinance under any circumstances.

"Would he have voted for the ordinance, even if he had ordered you not to?" asked Rogers.

"Yes, I believe I would," answered Kelly.

He was then excused.

In every case Rogers has brought out the fact that the supervisors were in favor of the ordinance and that they would have voted for it even had there been no money in it for them.

Former Supervisor Edward J. Walsh next took the stand. His memory was as good as McGushin's. He was asked to recall the denomination of the bills in the two separate payments of $200 each he had received from the trolley franchise.

Henry's temper was worn to a frazzle edge before he finished Walsh's examination. Walsh also testified he had been approached by two men in connection with the trolley franchise except Gallagher.

"Take the witness," said Henry.

"How much did that envelope containing the second payment contain?" asked Henry.

"I don't know," said Walsh.

"Isn't it a fact that there was only $100 in it?" asked Henry.

"I couldn't say," answered Walsh.

CONTAINED ONLY $100.

Rogers then read a portion of Walsh's testimony at the last trial, in which Walsh had stated that the envelope had contained $100 when he finally had received it.

"Was Gallagher shortchanging you?" asked Rogers.

"No," answered Walsh.

Rogers showed several discrepancies in Walsh's testimony. In this and the former trial, Henry stated that in several instances the witness had testified that in his case was the same as in the last trial. He also declared that Rogers' cross-examination was not intended to impeach the witness, but to confuse the jury and waste the time of the court. Rogers argued the point and showed that he was within his legal rights at all times.

THOUGHT FRANCHISE GOOD.

Walsh also testified that he voted for the franchise before he even heard there was money in it. He stated that he had made his mind up to vote for the trolley system as soon as he heard of it, as he believed it would be a good thing for the city.

On redirect examination Henry asked Walsh if it were not a fact that he had testified before the grand jury that Sanborn had told him there would be $400 in it for him if he would vote for the trolley franchise. Henry then read Walsh's grand jury testimony showing that such was the case.

"You know perfectly well that you read there was money in it for you before you voted for the franchise," said Henry.

"I don't know," said Walsh.

shouted Henry, exasperated by the bookkeeper's testimony to what the prosecution had not looked for. "Well, I don't remember," said Walsh.

Rogers then read a portion of Walsh's testimony given at the last trial in which the bookkeeper stated that he had never heard of any money to be paid for his vote until the ordinance was passed.

Rogers also stated that Sanborn had also testified to the same thing. The contradiction between the grand jury testimony and the testimony in the two Ford trials caused sarcastic quibbles. He was then excused and after the five minute recess Dr. Charles Bortone, who was mayor under the "big stick" a few days, took the stand. On direct examination he stated he had been president of the Board of Supervisors for a time and that he had voted for the ordinance on each occasion.

MONEY FROM GALLAGHER.

"Did you receive any money for Gallagher?" asked Henry.

"Yes, sir," answered Bortone.

"How much?" asked Henry.

"$2000, first time," answered Bortone.

"In what kind of bills?" asked Henry.

"They ran from one to twenty dollar bills," answered Bortone.

"And did you get another payment?" asked Henry.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

"How much?" asked Henry.

"$2000," answered Bortone.

"What kind of bills?" asked Henry.

"Principally one hundred dollar bills," answered Bortone.

"Did you have any recollection of the suit brought against the board by Mr. Langdon?" asked Henry.

"I have no distinct recollection of it," answered Bortone.

"But you remember when Rufus tried to get the district attorney's office?" asked Henry.

"Yes, I remember that," answered Bortone.

"Well how long after that that you got the last payment?" asked Henry.

"I don't remember," answered Bortone.

"Are you acquainted with T. L. Ford?" asked Henry.

"Well, I have met him just to shake hands with him. We were never intimate," answered Bortone.

"Were you a member of the street committee in 1907?" asked Henry.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

"Did you remember when Rufus tried to get the district attorney's office?" asked Henry.

"Yes, I remember that," answered Bortone.

"I am not sure," answered Bortone.

The carmen luncheon, at which a number of the Supervisors were entertained by the United Railroads officials, was also gone over.

Henry, at the time the trolley matter was presented to the board first after the fire, you were in favor of the permit?" asked Rogers.

"Well, I was in favor of transportation for the city," answered Bortone.

"But you realized the need of transportation facilities and the establishment of the street car system?" asked Rogers.

"Well, yes," answered Bortone.

"And you favored the rehabilitation of the car system by the means of the overhead trolley?" asked Rogers.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

"Yes; the sentiment of the people favored the granting of the trolley permit," answered Bortone.

"Did you hear of any opposition to the granting of the trolley permit?" asked Rogers.

"Well, there may have been some little criticism by some of the local newspapers, but it did not amount to much," answered Bortone.

"Then you would have voted for the ordinance under any circumstances?" asked Rogers.

"I would," answered Bortone.

In his testimony before the grand jury Dr. Bortone stated that in the first payment of the alleged bribe which he received from Gallagher there were no bills smaller than a five dollar bill. This was in the first payment. The envelope contained ones, twos, and five dollar bills. This discrepancy caused Rogers to ask the witness if there was any ulterior reason for his change of mind on this point.

"Now, Dr. Bortone, after you had made your confession in the case did you have your conversation with the prosecution?" asked Rogers.

Henry objected and was sustained.

"You made a statement, did you not, to Mr. Sprinkles and Mr. Henry and Mr. Langdon?" asked Rogers.

"I made a statement to Mr. Langdon," answered Bortone.

"After you had made that confession, did Mr. Burns tell you to make an affidavit denying that you had confessed?" asked Rogers.

"I think those are the exact words," answered Bortone.

"Suggested to you to make an affidavit denying that you had confessed?" asked Rogers.

"I believe those were the words; yes," answered Bortone.

"You are testifying under immunity?" asked Rogers.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

"You made one of those affidavits?" asked Rogers.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

The affidavit sworn to falsely by the bookkeeper was then offered in evidence. Henry on redirect examination sought by questions to have the witness give the details as to how he came to sign the false affidavit.

"You spoke about your attorney having spoken to Mr. Langdon and Mr. Henry before you made your statement. Who was that attorney?" asked Henry.

"Mr. Owens," answered Bortone.

"You had known him some time?" asked Henry.

"Yes, about twenty years," answered Bortone.

"That's all," said Henry.

"Whatever Burns' reason might have been he told you to make a false affidavit, didn't he?" asked Rogers.

"Yes," answered Bortone.

Bortone was then excused.

Fred P. Nicholas, another of the bookkeepers, was then called. Almost as large as "Big Jim" Gallagher, Nicholas proved to be less of an adept at evading questions and slipping out of tight notes. He lacked Gallagher's oil and slipperiness, and was tangled on several points. His memory was exceedingly poor and, despite his bulk, a weak and trembling voice, scarcely audible a few feet away, issued from his thick lips, and tickled out through the scraggly, reddish mustache.

REPEATS OLD STORY.

Repeating the same old story of how he received the $4000 for his vote, of how he had favored the ordinance, and was sure he would have voted for it under any circumstances, the bookkeeper scarcely held the attention of the few spectators scattered around the big court room.

MONEY FROM GALLAGHER.

A large way. Another large supply of small bills is being rushed to New York from Washington. A statement issued by the sub-treasury today shows that local banks during the week

CORTLEYOU SAYS
Secretary Cortleyou at the sub-treasury
today said:
There is nothing to say on the situation
now except to reaffirm my former expression of belief that matters are steadily improving.

There were lines of depositors waiting
this morning in front of the Trust Company of America and the banking office of the Lincoln Trust Company in town.
Both resumed payments to depositors as usual.

First advice from London today were very encouraging. American stocks there opening at prices from 1 to 4 points higher.

Cash amounting to $4,300,000 was sent to the Trust Company of America this morning to get the sub-treasury's place in the members of the stock exchange made their daily settlements of accounts
as usual today to the stock exchange clearing house.

The stock market opened irregular
A sharp reaction followed the opening gains. The fall in prices did not extend far below last night's level before a steady recovery developed. American stocks started higher. Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific and Baltimore & Ohio 1 1/2 to 2% higher. This showing was converted into losses running from a fraction to a point in some cases within a few minutes. Steel shortly recovered its 1 1/2 points.

SMALL BANK CLOSES
Announcement was made this morning that the United States Exchange bank,
a small institution located in the Harlem district of the city, would not open for business today. The bank has only a little more than $500,000 on deposit and did not have sufficient business to maintain its operations. It would not open for business was entirely without effect.

The Brooklyn Bank with a place of business at Fulton and Clinton streets Brooklyn, the Borough Bank of Brooklyn
a State institution with a capital stock of $4,000,000 and deposits of about $2,000,000
and the International Trust Company
among the small and inconspicuous trust companies closed today. These are all among smaller institutions of Greater New York and their closing had no effect on the general situation.

UNION TRUST CLOSING
PROVIDENCE R. I. Oct. 25.—The Union Trust Company on which there was a run yesterday did not open for business at 10 o'clock the usual hour.

As early as 6 o'clock this morning de-positors began to form a line outside the entrance to the bank and half an hour before the opening time there were more than 100 persons in line. There also was a demand of money to keep order.

Shortly after 9 o'clock the following notice was posted:

THIS BANK WILL NOT OPEN TO-DAY DUE TO THE STRINGENCY OF THE MONEY MARKET.

Up to a late hour last night the officers of the company expected to open today, but subsequently consultation brought a decision that in view of the tight money market the interests of the depositors would be conserved by closing.

HEAVY RESOURCES
According to the statement issued on Thursday last the bank had resources aggregating $2,215,735.

Its liabilities included besides the $500,000 capital stock a surplus of $2,250,- 000 undivided property of $22,709 and deposits of $25,465,625.

J. Edward Stokes is president of the institution and Marsden J. Perry is first vice-president.

TEMPORARILY CLOSED
FALL RICHMOND R. I. Oct. 25.—
The East Greenwich branch of the Union Trust Company of Providence did not open its doors this morning.

DEPOSITORS URGENT
CENTRAL FALLS R. I. Oct. 25.—The Central branch of the Union Trust Company opened at 9 o'clock, but as numbers of depositors waited to withdraw their money it was deemed necessary to suspend business at once.

NEW YORK Oct. 25.—The run upon the Trust Company of America has about spent its force and the officers of the bank have sufficient resources to meet any demand.

It is understood that the necessities of the stock exchange situation will be met today as they were yesterday by J. P.
Morgan & Company, who were advised early as to the stock exchange petition
by President Thomas of the exchange.
Loans made on the stock exchange today will carry over to next Monday. It is understood that negotiations were begun today by international bankers looking to the importation of gold from London and Paris. It is expected that some of the $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 will be engaged at those centers for import if necessary.

BIG MONIED MEN SAVED THE DAY

NEW YORK Oct. 25.—Timely action on the part of men of wealth and influence has served to act as oil on the troubled waters of finance and New York, which has been the center of a money storm for several days in which many interests have been sorely buffeted began business today under conditions of the most optimistic nature. On all sides are heard expressions of confidence that the community has now safely weathered the gale. Early today Secretary of the Treasury Cortleyou was so prompted to say:

"The situation has improved so much that I have no further statement to make for the present."

The Trust Company of America, got about $10,000,000 worth of pounding yesterday and started off today smiling and confident, as it were with millions more stacked on its counters to pay out to the timid depositors. Three small saving banks were in distress yesterday and were forced to suspend temporarily on account of heavy runs but these institutions will have no appreciable effect in the general situation, as none of them is in any way what may be termed a representative bank of New York.

PLANS FOR TODAY.
A meeting of financiers who are grappleing with the whole bank situation was prolonged until early today. To prepare for the demands of depositors today, the banks and trust company presidents met in the art gallery of J. P. Morgan's home at midnight. Those present were E. H. Harriman, J. Edward Stokes, president of the Fourth National Bank, and a member of the clearing house, George W. Perkins and President Oakleigh Thurnbull of the Trust Company of America. After the meeting it was announced that there was no statement to give out.

It is expected that the masterly stroke of J. P. Morgan and his associates in turning $20,000,000 into $25,000,000 by deposit in local banks of $5,000,000 by

Secretary Cortleyou and the further action of John D. Rockefeller in coming to the front with $10,000,000 for the trust company's use will effectively stem the tide of panic. Leading bankers and business men view the situation with satisfaction. Henry Clews has this to say:
"I have no doubt now that a certain unavoidable element has been eliminated from part of financial circles. Confidence has been restored in market values, the people will look back on this situation with satisfaction. To my mind the public worry is an unnecessary and unwarranted condition today."

SCHIFF CONFIDENT
Jacob Schiff believes the situation
well in hand, and he looks for no more trouble.

It may be said according to prominent men here who have talked on the subject that more conspicuous than any other collateral feature of the disturbance has been the fact that they have in no way affected the general commercial and industrial situation. After returning to equanimity has permitted a survey of the general business situation
it has been declared by business men that not only has the mercantile world scarcely been impinged on by the panic
but that the prospects are better than they have ever been for a continuation of the extraordinary prosperous condition of the last several years.

You will never know the true value of a dollar unless you earn it yourself.
As long as a man can keep his temper he isn't his own worst enemy.

FRESNO SALOONKEEPER

(Special to THE TRIBUNE)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Detectives
Murphy and Mulcahey this morning arrested Harry W. Hammer and Jefferson Burke and placed their names on the detinue book at the city prison. The two men are wanted in Fresno for an alleged assault upon a well-known saloonkeeper in that city. Deputy Sheriff Harry J. Collins of Fresno is in the city and will take the men back today.

DE SABLE-SCHMITZ CASE
CONTINUED TWO WEEKS

SAN FRANCISCO Oct. 25.—The cases of Eugene De Sable Schmitz Ruff and John Martin, in connection with the alleged gas bribery were called when court convened at 9:30 o'clock. Attorney John J. Barrett for the defense asked for a continuance of two weeks which was granted.

POLICE HAVE CLEW TO BOGUS CHECK PASSER

A new bogus check operator has been at work in Oakland during the past month and has succeeded in several instances in converting his worthless paper into currency and merchandise at the expense of local tradesmen. The latest complaint made to the police was received yesterday from S. S. Fletcher of 911
Broadway and Joseph Vignier of 650
Broadway.

Fletcher says that Wednesday a well dressed man entered his establishment and purchased goods to the value of $37.41 giving in payment a check on the California bank for $37.
The goods purchased and four dollars
in change were given to the stranger.
Yesterday the check came back from the bank marked "no funds."

Nearly three weeks ago Vignier was victim of a man who answers the description of the crook who visited Fletcher's place this week. Vignier cashed a check for $15 drawn on the Oakland Bank of Savings for the stranger. Owing to the belief of the police that they have a clew which will lead to the arrest of the forger,
the names attached to the two spurious checks are suppressed for the present.

DEMOCRATS HAVE ALL KINDS OF MONEY TO SPEND

Many Men Who Will Vote for Taylor Declare They Will Have Nothing of Langdon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Joy reigns supreme in the ranks of the local Democracy. For the first time in many political years the faithful who have gone down regularly and monotonously to defeat, have money to spend. They can hire halls, build banners, wear placards and quench the thirst of the heeled without the uncomfortable feeling that after the election the process servers will be on their trail dunning for unpaid bills.

Of course the Democratic statesmen are not given the exclusive handling of the funds as the watchmen of the Good Government League insist upon exercising a governing interest over expenditures but the pleasure of having money in the camp is so unexpected and so exhilarating to the Democratic spirit that the restrictions upon the distribution are almost forgotten in the general jubilation.

MONEY IN FIGHT.

The source of this unheralded wealth is something of a secret. It is certain that the merchants of San Francisco are not the fountain of supply. It is equally a fact that the patriots of the Good Government League are not resorting to check books for financial support. Somebody is advancing large sums of money to accomplish the election of Taylor and Langdon and nobody will explain the mystery which involves the identity of this generous giver.

District Attorney Langdon has struck a jealous note in the campaign by accusing his opponents of also having money.

The possession of considerable free cash has made the Democrats in a measure haughty, although it is not clear why they should resent a measure of similar fortune to the other fellows.

GRAND JURY.

The local Grand Jury is again coming into the limelight of the political campaign. Some of the members who feel that they have accomplished all that could reasonably be expected of them, want to be retired if for no other reason than to allude the comment that they are being used as a political bludgeon by the graft prosecution.

Whether the inquisitors have anything to do or not they will be retained in office until the great political issue has been determined.

GRAFT PROSECUTION.

The graft prosecution is sorely distressed over the indisputable fact that a formidable member of men who intend to vote for Taylor have emphatically declared that they will not vote for Langdon. It was hoped at first that Taylor and Langdon might be able to make their campaign upon identical issues and that the support given to one would be received by the other.

The graft prosecution was the dominating force behind both and every effort was made to thrust both down the throats of the voting population. Then it became apparent that such a scheme was impracticable. Many that were willing to accept Taylor insist upon repudiating Langdon. Large business interests, prominent merchants and employers and men of general affairs are openly in revolt against the District Attorney.

It may readily be realized that the concern of the graft prosecution over this situation is very grave. The men who will not swallow Langdon cannot be accused of ulterior motives for two reasons. They are too far above suspicion to be accused and they are going to support Taylor. This has placed the graft prosecution in a dangerous predicament and no remedy, worthy of discussion or consideration, has yet been suggested. The class of men who are in this revolt constitutes one of the largest and most influential in the voting population.

FIRE LADDIES.

The Fire Department is enjoying one of the huge jokes of the campaign. For the

JOHN BOYNTON PASSES AWAY

Well Known Educator is Summoned While at Melrose Home.

John Calvin Boynton, prominently known throughout the State, especially in Nevada County, as an educator, passed away this morning at his home in Melrose at the age of 83 years. Decedent was born in East New Portland, Me. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Rose M. Boynton, and two sons, Attorney Charles Boynton, of Alameda, and William H. Boynton, now a student at Cornell University.

Mr. Boynton completed his education in Astabula College, Ohio, and taught school for a time in that State. He crossed the plains in 1852 and settled in Nevada County. He taught school for forty years, principally in this county, and made teaching his life work.

At the age of sixty he retired to a farm in the vicinity of Merced. About four years ago he moved to Melrose, where he resided until the time of his death.

Mr. Boynton was universally beloved by all who knew him, and unselfishness was the keynote of his life. He wrapped himself up in his pupils and their success was his success.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of Wood & Miller, Twenty-third avenue, East Oakland. The remains will be incinerated.

RESIGNED.

Frank Schmitz, superintendent of the almshouse, sent his resignation to the Board of Health yesterday.

PROCESSES SERVED.

Processes were served by the United States marshal yesterday on Vice-President E. B. Calvin in thirty-three suits brought against the Southern Pacific Company by order of Attorney General Bonaparte for violating the act of Congress preventing cruelty to animals in transit on the railroad's cars.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER WANTED.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Clyde E. McLeod, president of the C. P. McLeod Real Estate Company, accused of embezzling $150 from Arthur W. Kornstern. McLeod disappeared last Friday and Arthur W. Perry, the secretary of the company, says his pecuniations will probably reach $15,000.

RESTRAINING ORDER.

Judge de Haven yesterday issued an order restraining the sheriff from selling property of the O. F. Willey Company, an insolvent, to satisfy judgments obtained against it in order, it is alleged, to defraud creditors.

DROPPED DEAD.

Thomas Hemmingsway, a resident of 105 Lombard street, dropped dead on Van Ness avenue early yesterday morning. Hemmingsway had been in the employ of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company for twenty years.

RYAN PLEADS FOR THE END OF OLD CLASS WAR

STAND TOGETHER AS WE DID AT FIRE, SAYS CANDIDATE

Thomas Egan Denounces Present Control of Union Labor Party and Announces His Position.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—At Richmond Hall, Fourth avenue and Clement street last evening Daniel A. Ryan addressed a gathering that occupied every inch of space in the hall and overflowed into the street. It was in the heart of the Thirty-ninth district whence reports had gone out that under the leadership of one McMurray the great mass of voters of the Republican persuasion had refused to accept the nomination of the Republican municipal convention had nominated for Mayor.

Ryan placed his position in this campaign squarely before his hearers. He pointed out the utter failure of the state made by a succession of both as to present and probable future conditions. He told them that he stood for a fair and equitable course but not the extreme of the extreme of labor and the extreme of capital.

PLEADS FOR UNITY
Why this talk about money? he asked the voters before him. Every one knows that money goes where it will find profitable investment and that surely must be in San Francisco no matter whether Ryan or P. H. McCarthy is elected Mayor. It is the old story of the enterprise that is held back by the fact that the Southern Pacific railroad is bringing in the money and the city is not getting its share. Ryan said that he was not a capitalist but that he was a worker and that he was a worker who was not getting his share of the money. He said that he was a worker who was not getting his share of the money. He said that he was a worker who was not getting his share of the money.

NEW SPEAKER
A new speaker was James J. Oliver an attorney who showed much the same line of reasoning as Ryan. Of the Republican candidates he said that they were all the same and that they were all the same. He said that they were all the same and that they were all the same. He said that they were all the same and that they were all the same. He said that they were all the same and that they were all the same.

M'CARTHY PREDICTS HIS ELECTION BY BIG VOTE

Declares When Mayor He'll Oust Police Chief Biggy and Disarm Street-Car Strike-Breakers.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—P. H. McCarthy, nominee for Mayor on the Union Labor party ticket, addressed three large, attentive meetings last night and also spoke at a noonday meeting at Second and Townsend streets to about 1000 wage earners.

PREDICTS VICTORY
P. H. McCarthy in his address said in part: "My opponents as well as their supporters and backers generally have all agreed that the people are with me. I will be elected by many thousands of the people unless they can confound the majority in such a manner that votes may be drawn from me to Ryan as to as to elect Taylor."

TAYLOR AND LANGDON ASK FOR SUFFRAGES

Poet-Mayor Disclaims Being Candidate of Rich Men, as Charged by His Opponents.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 25.—Mayor Taylor and District Attorney Langdon were liberally applauded at Garibaldi hall last night. The hall and the stairway to the sidewalk were blocked with people. It was with difficulty that the police made way to the platform for the Mayor.

ASKS SUPPORT
"The Labor Union convention said McCarthy refused to renounce W. I. Ham H. Langdon the only man elected upon the ticket two years ago who remained true to union principles. In his speech Mayor Taylor said: 'We have had our dose of corrupt government haven't we? That government was turned out and some of its members are now in jail. But now the city affairs are progressing rapidly. It has been said that I am the millionaire candidate. That is not true. Men should not be estimated for the money they have but for the learning they possess their noble aspirations and the poetry they write.'"

CITY AND S. P. PROPOSE BIG WATER FRONT SWAP

Both Prepare Gigantic Plans for Wharves and Each Needs Certain Property of the Other.

The Southern Pacific Company and the City of Oakland are bargaining. One of the biggest trades ever contemplated between a city and a municipality and a railroad is being negotiated with every intention that an exchange satisfactory to both sides will result. Each has something to offer the other. The city has a large area of water front land and the Southern Pacific has a large area of water front land and the city has a large area of water front land and the Southern Pacific has a large area of water front land.

SCORES BIGGY
I serve notice now on my opponents that when I am elected the unspeakable washerwoman Biggy will be ousted on January 5th and through the success of the city and the Southern Pacific will be in office the police and other fire arms now carried by Mr. Calhoun's non union strikebreakers will be removed from their hip pockets.

WHICH THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL BE PERMITTED TO HAVE HAS NOT BEEN DECIDED

but will be about 1000 feet. The railroad wants more than the city will probably grant but its demand contemplates the leasing of enough land for its establishment of comprehensive wharves by the city.

San Francisco Call.

If the San Francisco Call were really anxious to do the public a service it would denounce the Oceanic Steamship Company for sending passengers to sea in ships with rotten boilers and incompetent engineers. The conditions revealed by the recent investigation regarding the last cruise of the Mariposa by the inspectors of Hulls and Boilers furnish a case in point. But the Call belongs to the same outfit that controls the Oceanic Steamship Company, which has a financial record as rotten as the boilers of the Mariposa, hence will say nothing save abuse those who offend the Spreckels family. The Call is as foul and dirty as the ships under its joint ownership.

Gallagher's Boodle.

James L. Gallagher, boss of the immunity baptized band of hoodlums, testified that he has $80,000 of his ill-gotten gains deposited in the First National Bank, of which Rudolph Spreckels is president. He also testified that Mr. Spreckels first promised him immunity if he would testify against the heads of the public service corporations. Wonder how many more of the immunity band have their swag deposited in the First National Bank? It would be interesting to know why Gallagher selected that particular institution as depository for his thief's earnings.

International Aeronautics.

The St. Louis aeronautic carnival—an international affair—was brought to a close Wednesday night with an exhibition of dirigible balloons for a prize of $2000. The course to be covered was so short, however, that the result of the contest cuts no figure as a demonstration of the utility of either of the machines entered in the competition. The total length of the course was only one and one-half miles from start to finish. The first half of the course was to be sailed in the eye of the wind, the airship being then required to wheel around and return to the starting point.

There were four competitors in the race. One of them has a California invention, the creation of Captain Thomas S. Baldwin, a former resident of this State, who has been for many years past interested in aeronautics. His airship obtained, however, only a third place in the result of the contest. Each of the competitors was given three tries. The best time made by Baldwin in the "California Arrow" was seven minutes and five seconds. Lincoln Beachey of Toledo won the prize by covering the course in four minutes and forty seconds. A sister craft to the winner made the distance in six minutes and ten seconds. The fourth entry in the contest failed to start because of a crippled motor.

The competition was conducted under conditions that were of no more actual, practical value than the long distance sailing in the drifting balloon race. Both were interesting from a merely strictly scientific standpoint.

The long distance drifting match was an exhibition of the sustaining power of gas, the endurance of the aeronauts and the erratic character of the currents of the upper air. The distance covered was considerably shorter than the record established by Count Henri de la Vaux in a long distance race which began in Paris and ended by the descent of his balloon in Russia, at a place twelve hundred miles from the starting point. The French count's balloon took a true easterly course, however, and was constantly over the land. He had the whole breadth of the continents of Europe and Asia before him, and it involved only a question of how long the gas contained in his drifting balloon, his personal endurance and a fair wind would last. There was no danger of his balloon dropping into the ocean, while a westerly breeze lasted. But in the case of the drifting flight from St. Louis, the Atlantic ocean constituted a limitation to most of the balloons in the competition. The erratic character of the upper air currents was shown, however, in the wide dispersion of the competitive balloons—some of them landing in Canada, having crossed the chain of the great lakes, while others were forced to descend at points wide apart along the Atlantic shore from New Jersey to Maryland, the ocean barring further progress, although the buoyancy of the balloons and endurance of their crews could have carried them doubtless, record-breaking distances, if a safe landing place had been assured.

The dirigible airships' achievements have been greatly outdone in Europe and in the recent army tests at Aldershot, England. In the latter a wonderful display of the dirigibility and complete control of the machines and their power to remain in the air for an indefinite period was made, establishing beyond reasonable doubt their great value for military purposes.

THE PEOPLE ARE WITH THE TRIBUNE.

Indications are that something of real interest to the people will come out of the suit instituted by Rudolph Spreckels against the editor of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE for $100,000 damages for alleged libel. If Dargie, THE TRIBUNE man, succeeds in making good his charges of a conspiracy on the part of Spreckels and others to gain control of the city and county government of San Francisco, then the promoter of graft prosecution, whose praises have been shouted throughout the civilized world as the one millionaire of all with a pure soul and high resolve to lead the city of his birth out of political bondage, will wish that he had remained in the obscure class of the unsung. Dargie says he has it on good authority that Spreckels' purpose was to capture the municipal government and along with it certain street railway, gas, electric and other franchises which he has long coveted and besides it was in the general plan to unload the Spring Valley water incubus on the city. All of this Mr. Dargie is seeking to prove and if he succeeds in doing so it will be a sad thing, indeed, for the graft prosecution. Mr. Dargie does not deny that San Francisco was sorely graft-ridden, but he takes the position that if the prosecution is sincere it will play no favorites, but land on the villains, big and little, wherever they may be found. The people generally are with THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE in this view of the matter.—Richmond Leader.

FLIRTING ON DANGEROUS GROUNDS

The Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association will hold its next annual convention in Oakland in January. Oakland's popularity as a place of meeting for representative sectional and national organizations is growing steadily. It is becoming daily more conspicuous as the most desirable place on the Pacific Coast for such a purpose, and its attractions to the members of these organized bodies and to all classes of tourists are being rapidly enhanced by the erection of new first-class hotels, the laying out of new parks, the acquisition of more park lands and the improvement of the public streets and of the city's sanitary condition in general. These increase the accommodations afforded to visitors, add to the city's natural charms to delight the sightseer and make it all the more seductive to the healthseeker. The Admen's convention will be the largest assemblage of the kind held on the Pacific Coast, and the visiting delegates to it are sure to help materially in spreading Oakland's fame more extensively than ever abroad.

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

A more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs. In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. During its record of more than thirty years its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair-minded person and every thinking woman.

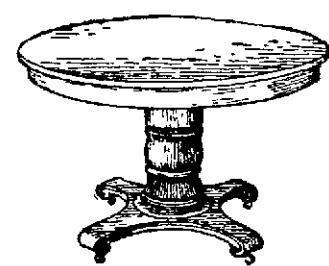

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions, weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in the country has such a record of cures of female ills and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Miss Sings White has not much sympathy for a woman who takes modernism to an such a degree tends to destroy human charms and graces of body. She admits that the hands and feet are important, but she does not know that they will make inferior wives and mothers upon that count. She adds the comfortable assurance that both hands and feet will grow considerably more yet before they approach the ample dimensions of those of the Venus de Milo, who is usually supposed to be well equipped in the matter of womanly graces.

NOTICE
To the People of Oakland.
All persons in Oakland, Calif., must hold themselves responsible for any weakness or suffering caused from old age, chronic coughs or colds, bronchitis, weak lungs, run-down condition, stomach troubles, nervousness or poor blood when we are willing to sell them the real cod liver preparation, Vinol, and return their money if it does not benefit.
The reason Vinol is so successful in restoring health and creating strength is because it contains in addition to cod liver oil the medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.
Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions it is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, therefore, unequalled as a strength creator and tonic reconstructor.
Mr. Parker, of the Owl Drug Co., says: "It is because we know as well as you that Vinol is made that we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Oakland, Calif., and every person suffering from stubborn colds, lunging on coughs, bronchitis or the ineffectual consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee." SOCIETY GOSSIP
of the afternoon, and Mrs. Marks has invited number of girls and young men to enjoy the game. The guests will number twenty or twenty-five.
FIVE HUNDRED.
Mrs. Arnold Needham will be hostess at a pretty card party at her home on Calceonian avenue on Thursday afternoon of next week. Five hundred is the name selected for the day, as giving more opportunity for informal sociability at the card tables.
The decorations for the afternoon will consist of autumn leaves and autumn flowers, a charming idea out of which many beautiful effects may be evolved.
On Mrs. Needham's guest list for the day are Mrs. Charles Allard, Miss Ada Bates, Mrs. William Beck, Miss Grace Burrill, Mrs. Mary P. Carlton, Mrs. Melville Dozier, Mrs. Charles Dunsmore, Mrs. Charles Evans, Mrs. Oliver Ellsworth, Mrs. Herbert Gaskill, Mrs. George B. M. Gray, Mrs. John Jenks, Miss Clara Knight, Mrs. Seth Talcott, the Misses Hawley, Mrs. Frank Kinsey, Miss Anna Wilson, Mrs. Dudley Kinsel, Mrs. John Subr, Mrs. A. J. Snyder, Mrs. Grace Moore, Mrs. Lowell Hardy, the Misses Powell, Mrs. Abbie McReavy, Mrs. Frances Smith, Mrs. Benjamin Smith, Mrs. Harry Kergan, Mrs. Raymond Kitchener, Mrs. George Steele Lackie, Mrs. A. S. Larky, Mrs. H. G. Miller, Miss Winnie McFarland, Mrs. Charles Morey, Mrs. William Milwain, Mrs. Frederick W. Morse, Miss Myra Merriam, Mrs. George Newton, Miss Margaret Olesse, Mrs. J. Loran Pease, Mrs. L. W. Jefferson, Mrs. John B. Jordan, Miss Eva Yorker, Miss Eleanor Johnson and Mrs. E. Tregloan.
BRIDGE CLUB.
Mrs. William E. Miles will entertain the members of a small club of bridge players at her home on Friday afternoon of next week. Among the players are Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Ernest J. Cotton, Mrs. Beth Mann, Mrs. Felton Taylor, Mrs. Charles Lovell, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. Frances Wusser and Mrs. William High.
AT ALTA CREST.
The Halloween party to be given by Miss Marie Butters and Miss Marguerite Butters is the topic of much discussion in the younger set, and the affair is anticipated with keen pleasure. It will be a charming party, of course, with all the delightful appointments that can be given it, and all the quaint touches that the originality of the Butters' merry household can supply.
To the young hostesses it has a special significance, marking the last of their really informal entertainments. Neither Miss Marie nor Miss Marguerite has as yet been formally presented to society, so that the affairs over which they preside must of necessity be informal in character, but this winter both girls are to come out, and the fact that Miss Marie Butters will come as a bride-elect will set in motion a series of formal affairs such as do not often fall to the lot of a debutante.
The Thursday night party at Alta Crest, however, will be one of the merriest Halloween frolics that can be devised, and no check is to be put upon the elf spirit that enters into mortals on "the night of witches."

MISS MARIE BUTTERS.

AT BRIDGE.
Mrs. E. J. Dodge will be hostess at the first of this season's meetings of one of the popular bridge clubs. The members will meet to reorganize the club at the home of Mrs. Dodge on Thursday of next week, and the hostess has planned to make the afternoon very pleasant for her guests.
IS GIVEN SHOWER.
Miss Edith Dent, the pretty fiancée of Lionel Wolf, has been much entertained in all the bay cities during the past few weeks.
One of the prettiest of the late affairs was a "shower" given by Mrs. Ernest Porter this week. All sorts of dainty gifts were added to the bride's store of pret-

TO RETURN NORTH.
Mrs. Cabot Wickman of Seattle, who has been the guest of the M. J. Laymanes for several weeks, left yesterday for her home in Seattle. Her stay here has been made very pleasant, and many social compliments have been rendered. She is charming and gracious, and has become very popular with the local set. Mrs. Laymanes hopes to entertain her again next year.
PERSONALS.
Miss Elizabeth Loshig has been the guest of Mrs. Elzha Harlan at Martinez.
Mrs. L. Kenworthy is visiting Miss Bertha Head at Palo Alto.
Mrs. Frank Bowen of Palo Alto is visiting friends in this city.
Miss Rebecca Jewett is a guest in Sacramento at the home of Mrs. Henry Hellbrow.
A. H. Drake has made a number of business trips through the smaller towns of Contra Costa County this month.
Mrs. W. C. Ayers is spending a little time in Petaluma at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. J. Gray.
C. L. Wallace and Fred M. Easchus are two Oakland names which appeared on the register at the French Hotel in San Luis Obispo last week.
N. Hunt and E. Stocker have been at Groveland, near Sonoma, looking into some mining propositions.
D. C. Buckley was a recent guest at the Victoria in Sonoma.
Mrs. F. Korf and W. H. Korf were recent guests at the Commercial Hotel at San Luis Obispo.
W. S. King is with friends in Grass Valley.
George R. Freeman is visiting relatives at Willows.
Dr. J. J. Mugs of Oakland remained for a day or two in Stockton on his way home from Nevada, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wolf.
W. H. Allen is at Grass Valley.

Nothing in medical science is more direct and more reasonably certain than the action of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of anemia, a disease which is literally a condition approaching bloodlessness and which, if neglected, inevitably results in decline and death. Anemia is stealthy in approaching its victim and often is well advanced before it is detected. On this account it is necessary to begin treatment as soon as the first symptoms are noted.
An Albany Teacher Cured.
Miss Jennie E. Bouton, a teacher, living at 45 Second Street, Albany, N. Y., says: "Confinement in the school room brought on anemia. Any exertion made me short of breath and I had to stop at nearly every step on going up stairs. I had no color in my cheeks or lips and my ears were transparent. I had dull headaches and faint spells. I had a doctor but received no real benefit until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cured me and I have never been ill since."

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Officially Denies Having Any Interest in Associated Oil Company.

The New York Times publishes under date of Oct. 18th, the following letter from the Vice President of the Standard Oil Company:

To the Editor of the New York Times:
Permit me to call attention to an error of moment to the Standard Oil Company which appeared in your Washington dispatch, dated Oct. 14, and published in your issue of today under the heading "Harriman Road Still Rebatting." The dispatch says, among other things:

"Mr. Scrivener, Secretary of the Associated Oil Company, which is alleged by all California papers as an open secret to be a branch of the Standard Oil Company, testified that a large block of the stock is owned by W. F. Herrin, general counsel of the Southern Pacific Company."

In reply I wish to state with all emphasis possible that the Standard Oil Company has not now and has never had, directly or indirectly, any interest in the Associated Oil Company of California.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD,
Vice President Standard Oil Company.
New York, Oct. 15, 1907.

VETERANS ARE TO ASSEMBLE

G. A. R. Men Will Hold Notable Meeting About Annual Campfire.

A notable gathering of veterans of the civil war will be held at Loring Hall, on Tuesday evening, October 29, the occasion being the annual camp-fire of Lyon Post No. 8, G. A. R. The members of Lincoln Post No. 1, Garfield Post No.
24, both of San Francisco, and Admiral
D. D. Porter Post No. 168, of this city, and other comrades of the G. A. R. have been specially invited. Hon. J. R. Knowland, M. C., who has done so much to assist worthy veterans to procure deserved pensions during his official visits to Washington has responded to an invitation and will be present. Gen. Jos.
B. Leach, Adjutant General of the State, who is a member of George H. Thomas Post No. 2, has accepted an invitation and notified the adjutant that he will attend. Post Commander William N. Van de Mark will welcome the visiting comrades and introduce General William C.
Alberger, Post Department Commander,
and introduce General William C. Alberger, Post Department Commander, and past post commander of the post, as toastmaster. There will be no set program, but with such well-known comrades as Col. C. Mason Kline, General E.
S. Salomon, Judge E. M. Gibson, S. V.
Dept. Commander C. J. Hawley, General
Lauck and others who will be present,
there will be no necessity for program.
The mess tables will be ready to sit down to at 8 p. m., and the tables will be amply provided with the army grub of the early '60's, pork and beans, coffee and hardtack, with pipes and tobacco later.
The social committee in charge of the affair are Charles Herkenham, L. C. Parker and Samuel Brown.

CHARGES CONDUCTOR WITH ROBBERY HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—John Morrison of 213 Teddy avenue reported to Policeman Baum at 10 o'clock last night that he had been robbed by a conductor on the Potrero extension line of $9.50.
Morrison told the officer that he had given the conductor a $10 gold piece and that he had received only 45 cents in change. In making an investigation of the case, the policeman decided to put the matter up to his superior officer and he therefore conveyed Morrison and the conductor, who gave his name as Edward Dodge, to the Potrero station, where the sergeant in charge after questioning Edward Dromprey, a passenger,
decided not to arrest the conductor.

ROADMASTER ACCUSED OF STUFFING PAYROLLS

VALLEJO, Oct. 25.—There is much interest in this section over the outcome of the trial at Fairfield Friday of W. F. Tobin, formerly road master for the Southern Pacific company between Sacramento and Benicia, who is accused of looting the railroad company
by stuffing the payroll on his division.
It is claimed that Tobin holds some dark railroad secrets which he has threatened to expose and that the case will never be prosecuted. Color to this rumor is given by Southern Pacific attorneys asking further postponement.

Michael Leach, at present in charge of the Santa Rosa and Napa Valley branches, with headquarters in this city, has been appointed as Tobin's successor
and it is understood that the Sacramento-Benicia stretch of track will be taken from the Oakland division and added to the Sacramento division.

OAKLAND WILL ENTERTAIN THEM

Elaborate Preparations Being Made for Visiting Ad Men.

The fourth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Advertising Men's Association promises to be an auspicious event
in the history of Greater Oakland.

This convocation of the ad writers, advertising managers, space buyers, from leading cities west of Denver, Col., will be in attendance, and the Oakland Ad Club have made preliminary arrangements for a royal reception in January.
For months the Oakland Ad Club has been planning a varied line of amusements for the visitors and it is safe to presume that no one will leave Oakland upon adjournment of this convention who can say that they were not royally entertained.

The mercantile interests of Oakland will profit considerably by having such a body of men in convocation. Here will be assembled those who guide the destinies of mercantile interests in other cities, in the line of publicity, and they will carry abroad the favorable impressions here received.

The throng of new life and activity so apparent in Greater Oakland will enthrall these newspaper men, and advertisement writers from other cities.

All the necessary committees on finance, entertainment, etc., have been appointed and the convocation can but be a success.

$9.50, $10.50, $12.50 and to $42.50

WALKING SKIRTS OF SPECIAL VALUE $6.95

These skirts are made of green and blue checked Panama. They are made in two styles of plaited effects and exploit this season's newest ideas in skirts. Extra good value at—

$6.95

Winter's Needs in Ribbed Underwear

There is not a want in ladies' ribbed underwear that cannot be supplied in our big underwear and hosiery department. Here are a few hints of popular grades:

Ladies' fleeced cotton vests and pants in winter weight; ecru or silver gray; in all sizes including extra sizes at—garment 50c

Ladies' bleached fleeced cotton Union Suits; a medium weight in fine Maco yarn; an extra quality at—suit $1.00

Taffeta Silk Waists

A SPECIAL VALUE $5.50

These are heavy silk taffeta waists.

There are stripes, plaids and checks in several good styles, all up-to-date and of that quality of workmanship that commends itself to those who can discriminate.
The variety of colorings is particularly good; choice at—$5.50.

The Waist Department is almost daily receiving new net and lace Waists in white, ecru and Arabian shades.
It is easy to distinguish these novelties from the ordinary lines of evening Waists; grades embrace all qualities from—$3.00, $4.50, $5.50 and to $35.00.

The Winter Hat

is now an object of much consideration.
The fine weather extension may have caused you to delay this necessary purchase. If so, you have lost nothing of your opportunity to select from a reasonably complete variety. Our clever milliners have just added to our Millinery display about fifty copies of this season's imported hats. They have all the style and quality and at about half the price that would be asked for them if they were branded "Paris."

$7.50, $9.50, $10.50 and to $55.00

A late arrival of Walking and Tailored Hats from New York is particularly pleasing and in your Saturday shopping you should not neglect a call to see them—

$1.95, $2.50, $3.50 and to $7.50

ENGLISH "PICCADILLY" Coats

FOR CHILDREN

The winter styles of the always popular "Piccadilly" Coats for children offer a splendid choice to those who want outer garments for young folks that possess individuality, tone and quality. Our "Piccadilly" coats each carry the genuine label guaranteeing their right to their name.

Bold English checks, plaids and solid winter colors in fabrics of the correct weight for this climate; cleverly tailored,
some with plain velvet
collars; sizes 6 to 14
$6.50, $7.50, $8.50 to $18.95

The Corsetiere

is as important today as the modiste.
The makers of the best corsets are just as particular over each detail as though each corset were being made to order.
Living models are used to secure perfect shapes and the dictates of fashion are strictly followed. The result is that a perfect fitting, eminently stylish corset can be selected with as much assurance of satisfaction as though a corsetiere were making a special model to your order.

Among the reliable, up-to-date corsets
of today are: "The Kabo," "Helene," "Thompson's Glove Fitting," "Marguerite," "Royal Worcester," "R. & G.," "W.
B." and "P. N." In this meritorious variety are grades at—

$1, $1.50, $2 to $12.50

THE VEILING HABIT

was never quite so much of a habit as this Winter. Each arrival of new veils and veilings shows decided novelty and the abnormal demand has spurred the makers to unusual effort.

The newest Veilings come in a dozen different kinds of meshes—plain, fancy, dotted and nets of all sizes.

The new shades include lavenders, purples, greens, white, browns, reds, magpie, champagne and black; prices, yard—

25c, 35c, 65c and to $1.50 per yd.

Auto Veils are as varied in color as the line just mentioned; made of chiffon cloth, 3 yards long; in grades at—

$1.75, $2.25, $2.75 and to

A RIBBON SPECIAL

12½¢ yd.

The regular Saturday event in special ribbon selling consists of a magnificent offering of 3½ ins. all-silk taffeta ribbon
in a complete assortment of shades, including creams, white, light blue, pink, old rose, Nile, reseda, brown, cardinal, garnet and black; a desirable ribbon for children's hat trimming and hair
ribbons—

GREAT VALUE AT,
12½¢ yd.

Always significant of style is the rustle of a Good Silk Petticoat

On account of the very nature of the fibre of silk, there must always be some risk as to its durability. There is one brand of silk petticoats, the makers of which have so much confidence in the durability of the material of which their garments are made, that they assume all responsibility and issue with each petticoat a generous guarantee.

This guarantee is a contract to supply
with another garment of the same grade in case any crack, split or defect appears before you have had three months of ordinary wear out of it.

The prices of these guaranteed petticoats which are always up-to-date in style and color are—

$6.50, $7.75 and to $20.00

ROYAL COURT'S FAIR PROVED BIG SUCCESS

The County Fair given by Oakland Assembly, Royal Court, was a great success in every way. Over 300 people were present and the booths were nearly all sold out before the evening was half over. The affair was under the management of a committee of which Walter Tupper was chairman and J. E. Bourn, floor executive for the evening, and upon them belongs, to a great extent,
the credit for the success of the affair.

The following were the booths and those in control: Wheel of fortune—Alfred S. Omsby; Walter Crosby; George Towler; fortune telling booth—Mrs. M. A.
Parrott and Miss Lucy Parrott; county jail, Mrs. W. R. Naismith, judge and H.
L. Blake, C. R. Pritchard and Gerald
Newell, policemen; wild beast show, J.
A. Falkenham and Harry Miller; raffle booth, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, Earl Miller and others; punch bowl, Mesdames J. E.
Curley and H. L. Blake; ring game, W.
R. Naismith and G. C. Troth; the hay rack, Mesdames A. S. Omsby and J. E.
Bourn; ice cream booth, Miss Gertrude Jackson, Mrs. Alice Omsby and Albert Karnen; booth for men only, Clyde Collins; Royal Court National Bank, Mrs.
C. R. Pritchard.

The hat room was in charge of Charley

Barrett and the other members acted as a general committee of the whole to entertain their many visitors.

The door prize, a ten-pound box of candy, was won by Mr. Peterson. A hand-painted plate was carried off by Ralph Cole, while Mrs. W. J. Naismith won a handsome burnt plaque of "Paul and Virginia." Mrs. Pritchard took home a "Teddy Bear," and the sofa cushion was the prize of Miss Whiting of Elmhurst. The prize awarded for the best lady's costume was awarded to Mrs.
F. Lamplugh; for best Gent. to Roy Ray.
Dancing took up the evening and two flashlight pictures were taken during the evening.

Tonight it is expected to initiate over a dozen members and all are requested to be in attendance. Next week will be held a Halloween party, which is expected to be one of the unique affairs of the season. It will be a costume party and valuable prizes will be awarded to those having best and most original costumes. Many new and original features in the way of lighting and entertaining will be introduced under the management of J. E. Bourn and C. A. Tobey.

YOUNG DEBATERS WILL CONVENE IN BERKELEY

ALAMEDA, Oct. 25.—The Lyceum Debating Society of the Alameda High School has elected the following nine delegates to represent the school at the semi-annual convention of the Debating League of California to be held at the Searies, Alfred Tufts and Neil Wilson.

SOAT FROM LAUNDRY CAUSES INJUNCTION

Superior Judge Ogden this morning granted a temporary injunction against the Piedmont Laundry Company, at Twenty-fourth and Myrtle streets, on the petition of half a dozen residents of that district, represented by Attorney Abe Leach. The petitioners allege that smoke and soot from the laundry render it impossible for them to either enjoy the gardens surrounding their houses or open the windows on account of pernicious odors. The laundry company was therefore bound by bond of $1000 to either stop the smoke nuisance or close down their establishment.

Among the complainants are Robert McKiligan, Charles O. Miller, Harry J.
Maxwell, Frank Titus and B. W. Wright.
The defendants declare that they will have smoke consumers put on the top of their stacks.

profit at once by the plans for the extension of the Key Route. One of t-prettiest tracts along the new proposed route is the Rose Park tract. Many locations have been sold through the office of T. Minney Co., of late, and the great auction sale of lots at 2 p. m., Saturda-day or alive, will see many home-seekers on the ground ready to buy on treasonable terms offered.

Mr. Minney has been most successful in securing desirable outside tracts at the Rose Park tract is a model one, situated on an eminence that commands delightful landscape view, with good conveniences have been provided f-
those desiring to attend sale.

PRISONERS RECAPTURED

George C. Delles, who escaped from the city prison on October 1st was captured in San Francisco yesterday by Detective Hodgkins. At the time of his escape Delles was a trustee about the city hall and was allowed the freedom of the building without being kept under constant surveillance by the attending officers. He took advantage of the privileges accorded him to slip away while he was engaged in cleaning up the police barn back of the city prison. As a result of his breach of trust Delles will have to serve an additional term in close confinement.

CLOSING HOURS OF CHURCH FAIR DRAW LARGE CROWD.

AUCTIONS ON NIGHT PROGRAM

League of the Cross Booth Quaint Affair.

was packed and the promoters of the bazaar realized quite a neat sum. This evening and tomorrow night there will be auctions of the valuable articles which still remain unsold. The drawings will also take place tonight, those who hold the lucky numbers will be allowed to take their prizes home upon the presentation of their tickets.

The League of the Cross booth is attracting much attention. Mrs. Augustus Olsen, a clever amateur in the mystic line, is reading the palms of all comers, and some wondrous fortunes are being told. She is one of the fair's interesting attractions.

OFFICIALS ARE GUESTS.
Last evening a number of officials paid the bazaar a visit. Among them were Supervisor Joseph Kelly, Treasurer M. Kelly and Prosecuting Attorney W. Hennessey. A clever musical program had been arranged by Mrs. J. T. Moran and everybody who attended spent a pleasant evening.

The bazaar will positively close tomorrow night. Father Dempsey feels well satisfied with the results. Oakland people have come forward in many instances, and at severe sacrifice devoted a great amount of their time and labor to assist in making the fair a success.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a matinee for those who have been unable to attend the fair in the evening. A large crowd is expected.

FIGHT PLAGUE AT SEATTLE

Expert to Take Charge on Puget Sound—Deaths Cause Fear.

SEATTLE, Oct. 25.—Surgeon General Wyman telegraphed Governor Meade yesterday notifying the governor that Dr. Cofer of the United States public health and marine hospital service would take charge of the bubonic plague situation on Puget Sound. Dr. Cofer has had experience with the disease in Honolulu. The surgeon general intimated that the department would supply all the professional service, but that the expense of labor and material must be borne by local authorities.

PROPOSITION ACCEPTED.
In reply to a telegram signed by Governor Meade and William Hickman Moore, mayor of Seattle, was sent to Washington, saying: "The State of Washington and the City of Seattle will supply the United States public health and marine hospital service with all the men, money and material necessary for the immediate suppression and eradication of bubonic plague within its boundaries."

THE DEATH OF A WHITE WOMAN, Agnes Osborne, under circumstances which point to bubonic plague is being investigated. Her brother, Ernest C. Osborne, was a patrolman in the Oriental district. He took ill on October 5, and died October 13.

OTHERS DIE.
The days later a sister, Lydia M. Osborne, became ill and the same day Charles O. Eddy, the undertaker's assistant who laid out the brother was also overcome. Eddy died on the 18th, and the sister on the 19th. On October 21, a second sister, Agnes, became ill and she died yesterday.

The chain of fatalities came to the notice of the board of health yesterday afternoon and laboratory tests point to the plague as the cause of death in the last instance, although the doctors give only a provisional diagnosis.

SCHOONER WRECKED ON ROCKS IS TOTAL LOSS

MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct. 25.—Latest reports from the wreck of the schooner Novelty are that the vessel will be a total loss. She is high and dry on the beach and too far from deep water to be saved. The tug Columbia was at the scene yesterday but made no attempt to release the Novelty, considering it useless. The schooner cost originally $40,000. She was not insured.

WOOL NOT SOLD.
SANTA ROSA, Oct. 25.—Many buyers attended the annual fall wool sale at Cloverdale yesterday afternoon. Twelve cents was the highest offer made and this was rejected by the growers. Not a pound of wool was sold at the sale. Last fall the crop was sold for 12 and 14 cents, but the growers balked at 12 cents this season. There are thousands of pounds of wool stored in the Cloverdale warehouses.

ANOTHER REACTIONARY.
"It is possible, I believe," said the lecturer, by way of making his idea still plainer, "to take an illustration from the great book of nature."

"I protest," interrupted a sour-faced man in the audience. "President Roosevelt owns the copyright on that book!"

GOLF AND BUSINESS.
Cases have been known of men who have permitted business to interfere with golf, but they are rare, and certainly it would be extremely difficult to find an individual bold enough to incur the odium of his fellow golfers by admitting the impeachment. Golf Illustrated.

DAUGHTER OF SPAIN WEDS IN MRS. HEARST'S HOME

MISS CISTUI IS BANKER'S BRIDE

Elaborate Feast Follows Ceremony at the Hacienda.

Amid a profusion of floral splendor, Miss Luisa de Cistui, the daughter of a Spanish nobleman, yesterday became the bride of Frank Hamilton, a capitalist of Omaha, Neb., at the magnificent home of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, near Pleasanton.

It was most fitting that Mrs. Hearst's Hacienda should be the scene of the marriage of this "daughter of Old Spain." The familiar red-tiled roofs and the great barred doors made it difficult for the bride to realize that thousands of miles separated her from the land of her birth.

ILLUSTRIOUS FAMILY.
Mrs. Hamilton comes of an illustrious Spanish family which has been closely connected with the court at Madrid for many generations. She met Mr. Hamilton in Rome two years ago while traveling with Mrs. Hearst. When they became engaged it was decided that they should be married in Mrs. Hearst's Spanish castle in California. Mrs. Hamilton arrived a few months ago. The bridegroom and his family have been out here but a few days.

The ceremony was performed in the music room, which was decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums. The altar was formed at one end of the room of deep red Genoa velvet, with an old altar piece of fillet lace. The altar was adorned with an iron crucifix of the seventeenth century.

GARLANDS ON ALTAR.
Garlands of pink stockily were festooned from the altar to tall Corinthian columns in front. Silver candelsticks were placed between huge sprays of pink and white chrysanthemums. Palms and hanging baskets of ferns formed an aisle leading up to the altar.

The rest of the house was done in the Spanish colors, red and yellow; chrysanthemums being used.
The splendid orchestral music was furnished by Fred J. Eppstein of this city. The bride was given away by Mrs. Hearst. She wore a white satin gown abundantly trimmed with Duchesse lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Mae Louise Hamilton, sister of the groom. She was gown in a Parisian creation of white lace.

MRS. FRANK HAMILTON.

The groom was attended by Mr. Earl Gannett of Omaha.

SERVE WEDDING FEAST.
An elaborate wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony.

After the breakfast the couple departed in an automobile for San Francisco.

After a six weeks' tour in Southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will make their home in Omaha, where Mr. Hamilton is a banker.

About forty intimate friends were invited to the wedding. A special train carried them to Pleasanton in the morning and brought them back in the evening.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Mae Hamilton, Miss Stella Hamilton, Earl Gannett, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wattles and Harry Garton, all of Omaha; Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Mrs. Clinton Walker of Minneapolis, Miss Rose Barrada, Father Ramon, Mrs. J. M. Flint, Mrs. Barrada, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Wheeler, Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanborn, Mrs. Kinade, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark, A. L. Clark, Miss Clark, Mrs. P. C. Rockwell, Mrs. Elbert Apperson, Master Apperson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Clark, Mrs. W. B. Leonard of New York, Mrs. McLaughlin, Miss Egan and Mrs. Beck.

PLAN GREAT ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN FOR OAKLAND

Chamber of Commerce to Begin Collecting Big Fund With Which to Invade Other States.

After several important conferences, in which the suggestions of men experienced in the promotion of the interests of a city were received, the active members of the Chamber of Commerce, anxious to exploit the advantages and opportunities of this city, have decided to begin the work of collecting the fund for the purpose of advertising Oakland through the South, East and Middle West. The enthusiasm that has grown out of the last few meetings is such that at present every citizen and merchant in the city who has been advised of the intentions of the Chamber of Commerce has given approval to the scheme and has added support to the movement for Oakland's advancement.

TO INVAD OTHER STATES.
Realizing the fact that Oakland, now a city of 250,000 inhabitants, has more natural, mercantile and industrial inducements to offer than any big city west of Chicago, save, probably, San Francisco, on account of the great amount of building that must go on in that place for years to come, the leading Oakland merchants are preparing to seize the chance to make an effective campaign of advertising in all of the other States. It is those who have undertaken the work to place Oakland before the world so that it might be "talked about." The "boom" that will naturally result will be great and for the first time since the city hall was built there will be on-foot a movement for the advertisement of the city on such proportions as was never known before.

A short time ago the Chamber of Commerce sent letters to all of Oakland's merchants, stating in a general way that this fund was to be collected. There were numerous responses and quite a few contributions. The plan to raise $6000 each month for six months, with a guarantee from the Oakland Clearing House Association that the banks of the city will give one-sixth of the total amount raised per month for six months, has been generally accepted as about the best thing that was ever started in the way of progress in the city, and already about $240 a month has been contributed.

PULL TOGETHER.
In order that the work might be facilitated, a representative of the Chamber of Commerce has been delegated to interview merchants, property owners, landlords, heads of corporations and railroads, and even doctors and dentists, and have everyone in the city join in the campaign of progress. It is a case of pull together, and it is confidently expected at the headquarters of the big commercial body that it will not require more than forty days to gather the sum and begin the actual work of advertising.

shall meet the future requirements of this city, which is certain to grow rapidly."

YEARLY INSPECTION.
About thirty postmasters from towns and cities in California met Hitchcock yesterday morning and told him of the condition of their respective offices. He promised to send inspectors to California each year, who will look into the wants of the California offices and report to the department at Washington. Harry B. Hall, assistant superintendent under Hitchcock, accompanies the latter. They left Washington on October 5th and left here this morning for Nevada, expecting to return to Washington the end of this month.

FORM ORGANIZATION.
Clarence Merrill, postmaster of Berkeley in company with a number of postmasters of the adjacent cities met in the Federal building in San Francisco yesterday to talk over postoffice matters with Hitchcock.

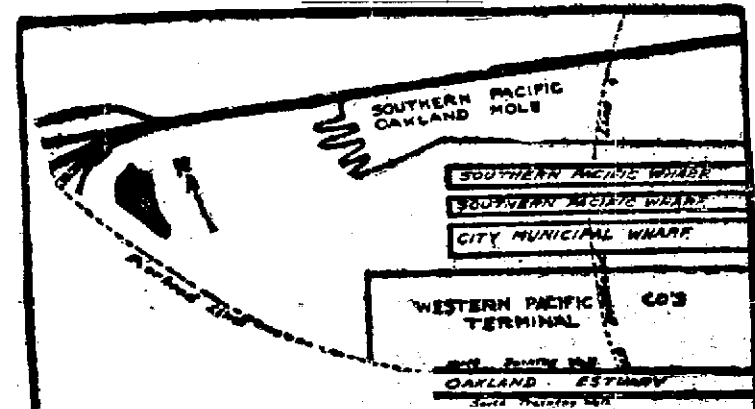

Merrill had a personal talk with Hitchcock. He assured Berkeley's postmaster that the needs of the office will be looked after. At the meeting an association of California postmasters was formed and the following officers were elected: W. G. Hawley, postmaster of San Jose, president; F. B. Ellis, of Stockton, secretary; A. G. Fiske, of San Francisco, treasurer.

POSTOFFICES ARE INSPECTED

With a view of familiarizing himself with the exact conditions of the postal service existing in what is considered in Washington as the far West and the Northwest, so that he may tell Congress at the next session of his personal observations, Frank B. Hitchcock, First Assistant Postmaster-General, arrived in San Francisco yesterday on his tour of inspection.

Hitchcock stated that a new branch postoffice should be opened in the business section of San Francisco and that "when the site shall have been procured the installation of the proposed postoffice system can be commenced. Congress has allowed and the department has appropriated money for such a system, covering all the stations in the city. In doing so we shall have to make provisions and build a tube system which

A good business

USUALLY when men say "a good business" they refer to profits; large sales at a good margin; making money. That's the only idea of good business some men have. Our idea of a good business is that, and more. We want to tell you about the "more." We have done, and are doing, a good business in the common meaning; lots of goods sold, at fair profits; making money; an unusually good business. But the "more" is this: Every customer we've had has made a profit, too; a bigger profit than ours, if you count money alone.

But we don't count money alone; neither do you; we both count satisfaction and good will, and our idea of a good business is to give you the satisfaction and get the good will. Of course, it's profitable; and growing; it's the largest "good clothing" business on the Pacific Coast; and that "more" is the reason.

SENATOR PERKINS TELLS ABOUT THE EARLY CUSTOM HOUSES IN SAN FRANCISCO

"We Have the Best Government in World,"
He Says.

Every Citizen Should Vote at the Municipal Primary, State and National Elections.

"We all believe in liberty, equality and law, and in the sovereignty of the people. In a government like ours, based upon the principle that the will of the people, expressed at the ballot, is supreme, a sacred duty is imposed upon us as individual citizens. There is a political responsibility we owe to our country which we cannot honorably neglect. We have the best government in the world and it will continue to be such for all time if we as individuals are true to the teachings of the founders of this great Republic. Therefore it is the duty, the imperative obligation of every citizen to vote at municipal, primary, State and national elections—not with blind passion nor unreasoning prejudice, but with careful reflection based on the qualifications and record of the candidate seeking political preferment."—Senator George C. Perkins.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—United States Senator George C. Perkins was one of the speakers yesterday afternoon at the laying of the corner stone of the new custom house.

Senator Perkins' address was listened to with marked interest and was instructive and entertaining. He said: "It has been a custom from time immemorial, honored in its observance both by tradition and history, to lay with becoming ceremonies the northeast corner stone of this government edifice. The history of the State of California since admitted to the Union is written in the personal recollection of many present here today. During that time we have had four different custom house buildings; the one we are set upon a solid foundation today being the fifth.

SENATOR GEORGE C. PERKINS.

"The first was an old adobe building located in Portsmouth square and formerly occupied by the Mexican as a custom house and soldiers' barracks combined. In 1850 our government built a three-story brick building on the northwest corner of Montgomery and California streets, where now stands the old granite building, the stone of which was brought from China. This old brick building was destroyed by the great fire in May, 1851. The government next purchased the lot on the corner of San-some and Sacramento streets at a cost of $150,000 and erected a building costing $140,000, which was occupied until the completion of the custom house and postoffice building erected on the site now occupied.

"This block of land was known as the 'custom house block' and belonged to the state. At that time it was below high water mark, the tide reaching on Jackson and Washington streets some distance above Montgomery street, the boat landing for ships at anchor in the bay being in the next block.

PRICE OF A BLOCK.
"Our government made an appropriation for a custom house and postoffice, and then filed application to our state to purchase this block of land. Governor Bigler in a special message recommended the relinquishment of the block to the United States government, and to this the legislature consented, fixing the price at one-half of its appraised value, which was $70,000.

"The government immediately commenced the erection of the custom house and postoffice building, which when completed was occupied until two years ago, when the postoffice was moved to the new building on Market street, and the custom house located in the United States Appraisers' building.

The building now under construction has made rapid progress when we consider all the builder has had to contend with on account of the great fire and earthquake. We should commend him for his zeal and determination to complete every obstacle and erect an edifice that will be an ornament to our city and state.

"Congress has appropriated for the construction of the building $1,500,000, but if that sum does not prove sufficient your delegation in congress will promise to secure an additional appropriation. San Francisco, by reason of her geographical position, must always be the great commercial metropolis of the Pacific coast, and in time her maritime interests are destined to eclipse those of New York or any other port on the Atlantic seaboard.

MARITIME AFFAIRS.
"No one not engaged in shipping or importing or connected in some manner with maritime affairs, can think real progress was an important factor in the affairs of our government the customs service is it is the export department for the enforcement of our navigation laws. Here must be documented and measured every vessel that enters the Stars and Stripes at its peak. Here is the only legal register or record of the ownership of the vessel. Here every vessel, steam or sail, of every nationality, engaged in transportation of passengers and freight must first report their arrival, and again, their departure. They must by entry through the custom house and under oath file a copy of the vessel's manifest. No cargo can be unloaded and no delivery of goods made, until a permit is received from the proper officer of the custom house.

"The revenue cutter service is also under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, speaking through the customs officials. The revenue cutters not only render valuable service to the customs service in preventing smuggling, but they are always ready to rescue shipwrecked sailors and aid vessels in distress.

"The appraisement of goods, their survey, inspection, collection of import duties that by indirect taxation bring millions per annum into the treasury of the United States, is all adjusted by the custom-house officials; and it is the highest encomium of the good character and personal integrity of the government employees that not one in a thousand swerves from the honest performance of his duty, or proves unfaithful in the discharge of the obligation he has assumed.

FIRST COLLECTOR.
"The first collector was Hon. James Collier, who was appointed by President Tyler April 3, 1849. He did not, however, assume the duties of the office until the following November. He was succeeded by Hon. E. L. King, a member of Congress from Georgia, later by three California members of Congress, Hon. C. Phelps, Hon. T. B. Shannon, and Hon. F. F. Low, afterwards Governor. Among other distinguished gentlemen who have been collectors of customs in San Francisco I may mention United States Senators Milton S. Latham, General John F. Miller, and Senator John S. Hager. Perhaps the influence of being in line for the United States Senate was one of the reasons that prompted the present very able and efficient collector to accept the appointment.

"On account of the excellent health of the present senior collector, I cannot, however, give any immediate encouragement; although I am sure he would fill that or any other position with the same conscientious, fearless devotion to duty that he has shown in his present office.

OUR COUNTRY.
"We all believe in liberty, equality, and law; and in the sovereignty of the people. In a government like ours, based upon the principle that the will of the people, expressed at the ballot, is supreme, a sacred duty is imposed upon us as individual citizens. There is a political responsibility we owe to our country which we cannot honorably neglect.

"We have the best government in the world and it will continue to be such for all time if we as individuals are true to the teachings of the founders of this great Republic. Therefore, it is the duty, the imperative obligation of every citizen to vote at municipal, primary, State and national elections—not with blind passion nor unreasoning prejudice, but with careful reflection based on the qualifications and record of the candidate seeking political preferment.

"We are proud of being Californians, but above all, we are Americans, true to our country's sacred traditions and loyal to its institutions. I know of no greater honor than to be a citizen of the United States of America. It gives us a perpetual protection as powerful and efficient as any which caused the Jewish ruler Agrippa to stay his hand upon hearing ominous words: 'Take heed what thou doest, for this man Paul is a Roman citizen.'

THE EMPLOYEES.
"The employees of the Custom House

in this port being desirous of showing their appreciation of our government's favorable response to the demands of our people to provide a suitable building commensurate with the requirements of the business of this great commercial metropolis, have each, voluntarily, contributed a sum sufficient to purchase this silver trowel, which they direct me to place in the hands of the collector of customs for the port with the request that he use it in spreading the cement and mortar on the corner stone which is to be the foundation of this imposing structure. After this work has been performed they ask that the trowel may be placed in the archives of the Custom House as a memorial and souvenir of this auspicious occasion.

"Mr. Collector, in compliance with their direction, it affords me pleasure to hand you this silver trowel, emblem of purity and usefulness. May its work in your hands in spreading the mortar which cements this building to its foundation long endure as a monument to a wise and beneficent government.

FRAWLEY IS MAKING PROGRESS WITH HIS NEW THEATER WOMEN FIND A "RAFFLES"

SKETCH FROM PLANS FOR DANIEL T. FRAWLEY'S OAKLAND THEATER.

There is reason to believe that Oakland is to have a new and modern theater in which the dramas of parlor plays will be produced by a stock company of more than usual excellence. At least the aspirations as far as they have advanced would seem to indicate that such is to be the case. The time limit set for the closing of the negotiations will not expire before the middle of November but it is likely that the prosecution or the abandonment of the project will be determined by that time.

Daniel Frawley, the well-known actor-manager who for a number of years successfully conducted the Columbia Theater in San Francisco is at the head of the project. He has been forming a company with a capital of $100,000 for the purpose of furthering the enterprise and has been successful in securing the necessary subscribers to insure the success of the undertaking.

The intent on is to build the proposed theater on property owned by the Kahn Brothers Company on the northern half of the block bounded by Sixteenth street on the north, San Pablo avenue on the west, Telegraph avenue and Broadway on the east and Fourteenth street on the south. This property was bought several years ago by the present owners and has greatly increased in value. It may be made accessible to passersby on all the streets mentioned and for that reason is considered most available for any kind of business. It is covered now with stores and a variety of industrial concerns all of which are doing a good business.

The owners purpose is to move slowly and practically in the matter of the further development of the property because when a new enterprise is launched there it must be one which will be not only demanded by the public, but also remunerative to the owners and a credit to the city. It is believed that whatever improvement is allowed on the site an arcade will enter into it for the reason that in many places in this country and especially in Europe arcades are not only a source of revenue to those who are in control of them but also who are tenants in them. This is based upon the fact that in a large cities and Oakland may now justly call herself large there are many

Sisters Discover Polite, Gentle Thief Sitting in Their Brother's House

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—A budding "Raffles" in the person of a middle-aged man, who entered the residence of Anthony M. Ruffa for the purpose of plundering the house, escaped capture by his Chesterfieldian manner when surprised by Ruffa's two sisters who went to the house to make a call.

Who are you and what are you doing here? queried the elder of the girls when they discovered the stranger sitting on a couch. "I am waiting for Mr. Ruffa to return," replied the stranger. "Won't you young ladies have a seat?"

The young women sat down and while the bold intruder complimented them on their good looks he edged toward an open window. Suddenly he made a dive and was gone. The two girls discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Ruffa had been away from home for hours.

The nervous thief was unable to get away with any of the plunder that he had picked up in another room.

BRAKEMAN CRUSHED BETWEEN FREIGHT CARS

A J. J. Peters, a Southern Pacific brakeman working on the Elmina Sacramento division, was a seriously injured last night about the head arms and back while at work. The draw head on a freight car had pulled out and Peters commenced to repair the break when the train started to go. He was caught between the cars and severely crushed. The examination at the emergency hospital revealed internal and external injuries. He was brought to his home 1406 Twelfth street in this city this morning and is reported as resting easily. If no further complications set in it is expected that Peters will be out again in a few weeks.

ACTOR MUST ANSWER CHARGE OF BIGAMY

SANTA ANA, Oct. 25.—George S. Best, an actor of Los Angeles, was yesterday bound over to the Superior Court under bonds of $2000 on a charge of bigamy. Best was the principal in a sensational escapade in Los Angeles a fortnight ago when he clandestinely married Miss Cecile Fleming, daughter of a prominent Los Angeles business man and eloped to San Francisco. There Best was arrested at the instance of the father of Miss Fleming on a charge of bigamy. Mrs. Anita Best who resides in Los Angeles claims to be the wife of the actor and is behind his prosecution. The defense was that Best duly married three times that he married Mrs. Anita Best at a time when he

THIRD BANK INVOLVED WHEN TWO CLOSE DOORS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Comptroller of the Currency Rudley stated this afternoon that the Banking & Trust company and the Williamsburg Trust company, which suspended payment today, were directly responsible for the closing of the doors of the First National Bank of Brooklyn which owes depositors about $4,200,000. It appears that the latter bank cleared for the two trust companies and the closing of the bank's doors today was for the purpose of protecting their depositors inasmuch as otherwise it would have been held responsible for the paper of the two trust companies that might come in any time up to tomorrow morning.

MANGLED IN MILL

WILMITS, Oct. 25.—Yesterday morning Lee Stratley while oiling the machinery at the Bitten Bender sawmill got caught in the belt and was drawn into the saw. His right arm was sawed off at the shoulder and the last two fingers of the left hand were so badly injured that they will have to be amputated. He has been taken to the Northwestern hospital.

The Shoes of the Season For Men

In this season of unusually smart shoe fashions for men, the blucher style is running evenly with the button style in popularity for wear with business suits.

Note, in this blucher-cut boot, the handsome contour of the high-sloping and pointed toe, the custom-shaped extension sole and the trim Military heel. It has already gained strong favor with men who are "fussy" about their footwear.

And if your taste is for a different kind of shoe, let us show you the other 42 models in the great range of Regal styles for this season—every one built on new—est custom lines.

PARDEE WILL BE AT 'CAMPFIRE'

Ex-Governor to Address Republican League Meeting in San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 25.—There will be a number of prominent speakers at the "campfire" to be held by the Army and Navy Republican League of Santa Clara county this evening in this city. Among these will be ex-Governor George C. Pardee and Orrin S. Henderson, president of the State League of Republican Clubs. Other addresses will be made by Major W. A. Coulter, who will serve as chairman of the meeting and by A. F. Palmer. The campfire will be called to order by W. P. Squires, colonel of Camp No. 2 Army and Navy Republican League.

It is expected that this meeting will be the opening gun of the campaign that will be conducted by the league through its hundreds of members for the success of the Republican candidates in the coming national election. The officers of the league are as follows: Colonel W. A. Squires, lieutenant-colonel W. A. Karnes, Major C. P. Berry, adjutant Ralph Waldo, quartermaster W. M. Price, officer of the day W. H. Brown, officer of the guard Frank Emser, camp council Dr. J. L. Asa, T. J. Riley, William Phillips, H. L. Partridge, Sylvester Samson.

EMPRESS OF CHINA FLOATED

Steamer Which Sunk at Dock to Sail for the Orient October 28.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—The Merchants' Exchange has received a dispatch from Portland, Or., stating that the steamer Empress of China, which sank at her dock Wednesday night, was hoisted today and will sail for the Orient on October 28.

ELECTRIC ROAD FROM NAPA TO SACRAMENTO

VALLEJO, Oct. 25.—Richard Hotelling, who recently returned from the East with the announcement that he has financed his Napa and Lakeport railroads is now endeavoring to secure funds to build an electric road from Napa to Sacramento to be operated in conjunction with the Napa and Lakeport line.

The surveyors who laid out a road from a point at Socol through the Janil canyon to Sacramento were Hotelling's employees but the bond house which Hotelling endeavored to interest in the proposed road has refused to finance the scheme and it looks dubious whether the road will be built. Hotelling has invested $200,000 of his own money in terminal sites between Eichelbrosen bay and Lakeport. An effort is being made to have the Sacramento project incorporated with the Napa and Lakeport road so that the bonds may be taken.

"PLUG UGLY" AND FARCE BY STANFORD JUNIORS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 25.—The annual "plug ugly" will be held tonight when the "plug ugly" men will don their painted plugs which are the official headdress of the men of the junior class. This annual upper class rush begins with a presentation on the baseball field of a burlesque and after the performance the juniors will run on their clubs and march around the quadrangle in a body. Throughout the play the seniors will be seated in front of the stage and will josh the junior actors. When the juniors begin their march around the oval the seniors will smash their plugs and attempt to break up the parade. The title of the plug ugly to be presented tonight is "The Doomed Dumb" and it was written by C. P. Happy. 10 and 11 W. West 63.

W. E. DARGIE ANSWERS ALL QUESTIONS ON STAND Deposition Proceedings in the Suit Brought Against The Tribune— Tells of Paper's Record.

At the opening of the proceedings yesterday in the taking of the deposition of W. E. Dargie of THE TRIBUNE, Attorney Reuben H. Lloyd continued his examination. Mr. Dargie was represented by Attorneys W. C. Chapman and E. W. Reed.

Mr. Lloyd—Mr. Reed, did you get the books that I want?

Mr. Dargie—Yes, I have the stock books. (Hands books to Mr. Lloyd.)

Mr. Lloyd—The understanding was that Mr. Wheeler should have a personal inspection of these books.

The Witness—The books are right here now.

Mr. Lloyd—And it is understood that if Mr. Wheeler wants to make an examination of them, the matter can be extended for that purpose.

Mr. Chapman—All right, he may do that.

Q—This is the entire stock book, is it?

A—Yes, sir.

The Commissioner—Before proceeding, I would like to make a statement. I don't know whether it is necessary to be made part of the record or not, but I will ask counsel afterwards, and if you think it necessary to become a part of the record you may let it stand. With reference to the return made by me yesterday, the 22nd, you will remember that prior to that time you had stipulated that the reporter's notes might be read.

BY STIPULATION.

Mr. Chapman—That is, the reserved questions might be transmitted to the court by the reporter's notes by stipulation.

The Commissioner—In making my return, Mr. Wheeler, instead of Mr. Lloyd—Mr. Lloyd was not here—you asked me how long it would take me to get my record ready to make part of my return and I had it ready the next day by 2 o'clock, and all the testimony prepared, so that I only wanted in my return the testimony taken on that day. It was a misunderstanding on my part as to the extent you gentlemen had gone through the reporter's notes, and no harm was done. I have the testimony all here, and can make a supplemental report and present it to the court, and I understood that Mr. Chapman's offer to the court was that as to all of the questions that he had instructed the witness to refuse to answer he would withdraw his instructions.

Mr. Chapman—Except those heretofore passed on by the court.

The Commissioner—Then, the fact that my return made the day before yesterday did not cover all those questions, would not be detrimental to either side in the result.

Mr. Lloyd—As far as we are concerned, I am willing to waive any objection as to the irregularity in the commissioner's return.

Mr. Chapman—Yes, because we entered into a stipulation in the court, and that cures any irregularity.

ENTERED INTO MINUTES.

Mr. Lloyd—That stipulation has been entered in the minutes.

The Commissioner—If that is not satisfactory, I can incorporate the testimony; it is in the vault.

Mr. Lloyd—The stipulation ends the whole thing here.

Mr. Lloyd—Are you ready to proceed now?

Mr. Chapman—We are ready.

Mr. Lloyd—Q—You said, in answer to questions a couple of days ago, that you criticized Mr. Rudolph Spreckles because he didn't prosecute the Spring Valley Water Company, that he left them off. What crime or misdemeanor, if any, do you know was committed by the Spring Valley Water Company for which they ought to be prosecuted?

Mr. Chapman—Objected to as immaterial.

Q—Of your own knowledge, I ask you

Q—Have you been re-elected president of the corporation within the last month?

A—Not to my knowledge. I have served continuously in that capacity for over thirty years.

Q—During all that time you have directed and managed continuously the business of the corporation absolutely?

A—When in the city, and when absent through representatives I have left in charge.

Q—You have carried it on under your control and direction? A—Yes, sir.

Q—When can you produce the by-laws mentioned? A—I don't know. I don't know that I could produce them, but I will make a diligent search and produce them as soon as I can.

Q—Could you do so this afternoon?

A—I will try to. This is the first time to my knowledge that I have been asked for them.

Q—You have a subscription list of your paper, have you not? A—I don't know whether we have or not.

Q—Did you not examine it the other day to ascertain how many copies of the paper had been distributed, and testified in relation to that? A—I don't remember now whether I did or not.

Q—You examined some books in relation to the issue of the paper, and the number that had been published a few days ago? A—On what day?

Q—Last Thursday, I think it was.

Mr. Chapman—Wasn't that relative to the circulation?

Mr. Lloyd—The circulation, that's what I mean.

Mr. Chapman—Well, there is a difference.

A—I examined a report that I received when I asked for it.

CIRCULATION REPORTS.

Q—Was it a daily report? A—No, a report that I asked for.

Q—Do you get a report except when you ask for it? A—No, sir.

Q—You asked for a report at that time?

A—Yes, sir.

Q—Did that report to be made up from the books? A—From the number of papers run on the press.

Q—Is there a record kept of those every day? A—No, sir.

Q—Not every day? A—No, sir.

Q—Can you tell a month back how many papers you had published or printed for any day? A—I don't know that I can.

Q—Is there not a record kept of that?

A—Not to my knowledge.

Q—What books have you now that belong to the corporation?

Mr. Chapman—Objected to as immaterial.

Q—You have testified that you had exclusive control of the books of the corporation. What books have you of the corporation?

Mr. Chapman—Same objection.

A—I have no list of the books we have there, but I have control of the office.

Q—Have you any idea what books are there? A—I don't know the names of the books that are there.

Q—You haven't looked? A—I haven't looked into the details. Of course, there is a ledger there, and an advertising blotter, and a large number of books there.

Q—Is there any subscription book? A—Not to my knowledge.

Q—Nor any list of subscribers? A—No list of subscribers to my knowledge.

Q—Have you a mailing list? A—We have.

ALL RECORDS ARE KEPT.

Q—That is in this office, isn't it? A—I presume it is.

Q—Keep there all the time, isn't it? A—It should be. I presume it is. I don't know anything to the contrary.

Q—Who are your distributors in San Francisco?

Mr. Chapman—Objected to as immaterial.

A—I don't know.

Q—The names of the persons is what I am trying to get at; who is distributing the paper? A—I don't know who they are.

Q—Do you know any of them? A—I do not.

Q—Who employs them?

Mr. Chapman—Objected to as immaterial.

A—I don't know of my own knowledge.

Q—Have you any list in the office of the corporation? A—Not to my knowledge.

Q—Is there not a list of the employees of the paper in THE TRIBUNE office?

A—I don't believe there is any list of the distributors of THE TRIBUNE kept at all.

Q—Is there any list of the persons to whom THE TRIBUNE is furnished in San Francisco for distribution? A—I don't know.

Q—Whether it is or not? A—No, sir.

Q—You don't know the name of a single person who distributes THE TRIBUNE in San Francisco? A—By that do you mean papers for sale at the ferry or Palace Hotel or at the Flood building or at the Fairmount?

AGENTS SELL TRIBUNES.

Q—That's what I am getting at. A—I know the paper is for sale in those places and on the street, but I don't know the names of any parties to whom papers are furnished, but I know papers are for sale at those places among others, as well as by the carriers on the streets.

Mr. Lloyd—There is nothing further that I wish to examine in this witness about except in relation to the books he has furnished here now, if you will agree that Mr. Wheeler can examine these books and examine the witness upon them when he returns.

Mr. Chapman—Yes, we agree to that.

Mr. Lloyd—Will you agree that that examination may be a part of the direct examination?

Mr. Chapman—No, because he hasn't made it a part of the direct examination. He said he wanted to make a private examination of these books. As the result of that private examination, he might want to ask the witness some questions, and that privilege is open to him.

Mr. Lloyd—In other words, the direct examination may be re-opened as to that one proposition.

Mr. Chapman—The direct examination is still open on that particular branch, and we will claim the right, if Mr. Wheeler does ask questions upon that subject, to cross-examine him.

Mr. Lloyd—Certainly. I simply wanted to reserve that right to Mr. Wheeler, and, that being the case, I will close the examination now.

GET BUSY IF YOU WANT EXTRA PRIZE OF $100 IN GOLD

THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Some Candidate Will Get It—Why Not
You?

$100 CASH PRIZE.
AN EXTRA PRIZE OF $100 IN GOLD
WILL BE AWARDED TO THE CANDI-DATE WHO, WITH THE AID OF FRIENDS, BRINGS IN THE LARGEST AMOUNT OF MONEY ON PAID-IN-ADVANCE SUBSCRIPTIONS FROM FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, TO SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2.
ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS PAID IN ADVANCE
DURING THIS PERIOD, WHETHER
BY CANDIDATES OR THEIR FRIENDS, WILL BE CREDITED IN FAVOR OF A CANDIDATE AS REQUESTED.
THE VOTES ISSUED ON THESE SUBSCRIPTIONS CAN BE VOTED AT ANY TIME, OR HELD AND VOTED ON THE LAST NIGHT OF THE CONTEST
IF DESIRED.
AT NO TIME DURING THE CON-TEST WILL ANY MORE DOUBLE VOTES BE ISSUED OR WILL ANY SPECIAL VOTE OFFER BE MADE.
THIS IS AN EXCELLENT CHANCE
TO GET $100 IN EASY MONEY.

"How do you approach a prospective subscriber?" This question was asked a young lady whose chances in THE TRIBUNE'S Great $10,000 Prize Contest are considered to be mighty good.

"Why, it's the easiest thing in the world," she replied. "In the first place,
I bear in mind that I am not seeking something for nothing, and that everyone in my community who wishes to keep in touch with what is going on should read THE TRIBUNE."

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION.

"It is a mere business proposition,
and I approach them as though I had no doubts whatever of the result. I am familiar with the best features of the paper, its full Associated Press reports, etc., and I tell them briefly that they will benefit themselves by signing for a year. Then I don't give up until the last minute. Oftentimes a person who will not subscribe for a whole year will for six months or three, and 'every little bit helps,' you know."

"In case they are already subscribing to THE TRIBUNE I tell them that they might as well pay up in advance for a year and help me out at the same time.
As well as avoid the annoyance of having the collector call each month. It is the person who takes the attitude that soliciting subscriptions is asking for favors who gets the refusals."

MANY VOTES IN RESERVE.

Everyone is busy. The special offer of $100 in gold is an additional incentive to haste. Of course it should be borne in mind that the actual figures of each day's balloting does not show all that is being done by the various candidates.
Many are playing the game like foxes politicians and are holding back votes for the crisis. The subscriptions should be turned in as soon as they are so that the subscribers may be credited at once.

Don't be afraid to ask your friends to do a little work in your behalf. You will be surprised to find how willing they are to show their friendship for you and their efforts will go far toward helping you to win.

$100 IN GOLD.
The offer of $100 in gold is attracting the attention of candidates, and some candidate will be made happy by winning the $100. Why not get busy and secure it?

COUPONS IN PACKAGES.

The vote coupons must be tied in packages or placed in envelopes. It is impossible to count thousands of coupons dropped loosely in the box.

MANNER OF VOTING.

A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE
until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the contestant named therein.
There is another and better way of acquiring votes and that is on subscriptions.
Votes will be given on all paid-in-advance
subscriptions as follows:

Three months, $1.95..... 100 extra votes
Six months, $3.90..... 200 extra votes
One year, $7.80..... 400 extra votes
Two years, $15.60..... 800 extra votes
Three years, $23.40..... 1,200 extra votes
Three hundred votes are also issued on a classified advertisement coupon book, which contains coupons worth $2.50, but sells for only $2.

CLASSIFIED AD COUPONS.

An innovation in voting contests is the issuing of votes on classified advertisements. A coupon book containing coupons to the value of $2.50 is sold for $2. This is a saving of 50 cents on each dollar, and will prove a great investment for those who advertise. Classified advertisements are such as "Help Wanted," "For Sale,"
"Rooms to Rent," etc. These classified advertisement coupons can be used at the time the books are bought or at a later date as may be desired.

OUT OF SIGHT.
"Out of sight, out of mind" is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and children's disaspear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros., druggists, Washington streets, 25c.

AUCTION!!!

30 Choice Residence Lots at Public Auction

Regardless of price. In order to close out the few remaining lots in Rose Park we will sell them at auction to the highest bidder. These lots consist principally of a block of 40-foot lots, which are the best in

Rose Park Tract

And which were not opened for sale until most of the remainder of the tract had been sold out.

Rose Park is beautifully located in outer Fruitvale on high ground with splendid marine and landscape view. Car line passes the tract. Rose Park is also right on the line of the Key Route extension to San Jose.
This section is settling up rapidly and values are increasing. We are going to sell these lots at whatever price
the people are willing to pay for them, so don't fail to grasp this opportunity of securing a splendid piece of real estate at your own price. Don't forget the time,

HINDU WOULD ATTACK WOMAN

Screams Bring Husband Who Beats Oriental Into Half Unconscious Condition.

RICHMOND, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Edward Rue, wife of a well known employee of the Standard Oil refinery, suffered a fright Wednesday night at her home, 527 Golden Gate avenue.
Mrs. Rue and her husband were sitting out of doors a short distance from the house enjoying the beautiful evening and after a time Rue proposed a walk. The wife objected, saying she was weary and would remain
there and await her husband's return from a stroll in the direction of the refinery. Accordingly Rue set off but had been gone but a short time when Mrs. Rue became conscious that somebody was near and turning observed the dark form of a man creeping up on her from the rear.
She screamed and ran toward the house with the fellow pursuing, but she succeeded in reaching her home before he was overtaken, and slammed the door and locked it in the face of the intruder.

Mrs. Rue's cries brought her husband in short order and she breathlessly told him of the prowler. Rue immediately started in pursuit of the man and soon saw him running away
as fast as his legs would carry him in the direction of the bay shore. He went after the miscreant, overtook him, and the beating given the fellow—who proved to be a Hindu from one of the Standard Oil steamers lying at this port—will long dwell in the Oriental's memory.
Neighbors who had gathered left the Hindu in a half unconscious condition. Afterward he was arrested and taken to jail on a warrant sworn out by Rue. When he has recovered sufficiently to appear in court, the individual from scourge-stricken India will be haled before the court for trial upon the charge of attempted assault.

TO NEW MEXICO

Mrs. George C. Ellis, mother of Engineer Guy Ellis who has been visiting on the Pacific Coast for the past months departed for her home in Albuquerque last evening.
W. S. Rheem of the Standard Oil Company, and the East Shore and Suburban Electric Railway returned home from their trip to New York and other Eastern cities last Saturday.
J. E. Marshall, the present superintendent of streets at Richmond, formerly superintendent of the water works of Martinez was at the county seat yesterday.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Former Superintendent John J. Furey occupied the attention of the attorneys for the defense and the prosecution throughout the session yesterday afternoon of the Ford bribery trial. Furey proved to have one of the poorest memories of any of the witnesses. The afternoon dragged from 2 o'clock until 4 o'clock the attorneys for the defense argued against the admissibility of Furey's testimony on the ground that he was a dull witness. The afternoon dragged out, but Furey's testimony was admitted. The defense held that Furey had not been connected with the alleged bribery in any way and that for this reason the evidence was irrelevant. The arguments lasted until the court ordered them to cease and the spectators, who had gradually thinned out, breathed a sigh of relief.

After the 4 o'clock recess Henry resumed his examination, questioning the witness as to his acquaintance with Ford Calhoun, Mulhally and Abbot.
Now, did anybody claiming to represent the United Railroads talk to you about the trolley matter before the final passage? Henry inquired.
No sir, answered Furey.
Henry then turned Furey over to the defense for cross examination and Moore asked:
What is your present business?
Saloon.
Have been in it long?
Since last known.
You were a furrier, were you not?
Yes.
Ever been in any other business?
Yes, cigar business.
You say you had a talk with Mr. Gallagher some time before the ordinance was passed. What did he say?
He said it was fixed for the trolley franchise to pass.

MEMORY ACCURATE

Is your recollection very accurate either about dates or transactions?
On some subjects it is accurate.
Is it accurate on this matter?
Not very.
More than pointed out a discrepancy in two different statements given in the trial and his testimony in the present case regarding the conversation held with Gallagher concerning the passage of the trolley ordinance.
Now can you let the jury know how long before the ordinance was passed the passage of this ordinance, that you had this talk with Gallagher?
No I can't. I think it was a week or ten days.
Where was it?
Down town.
You answered to Mr. Henry that you voted for the franchise. Was that so?
Yes.
How long after those talks with Gallagher did you receive that payment of $2500?
I can't remember.
What did you do with it?
Paid bills, went into business.
For what? For the Big Stick to prosecute people.
No.
Let me let you keep it, did they?
Yes.
Have you been told by any one that it would be better to have in your recollection of dates?
No sir.
Then I presume that if you could remember, you would do so?
Yes.
More read a portion of Furey's testimony before the grand jury in which he had testified that the first payment commenced here and that Furey alleged these bills were small. The discrepancy in the hoodler's testimony called forth a grumbling from Moore.

What is the money received in the second payment in bulk about?

MONEY DEPOSITED

Furey stated that he placed his money
in two different safe deposit boxes.
Altogether sought to learn how it happened that he could recall the fact that the different payments were placed in different boxes when his memory was so defective in all other respects.
He could not recall when the second payment was made. Furey's recollection grew worse
as the examination proceeded.
The question of Furey's immunity was also brought up.
You say you were granted immunity with the understanding that you were to tell the truth as understood by the prosecution? asked Moore.
I received immunity on the grounds
that I should tell the truth.
But they are the judges of the truth
are they not?
Yes.
Well then it would be a pretty serious condition of affairs for you if you were to testify to anything that you thought was the truth and which they thought different wouldn't it?
I don't know.
I you were to get up here and swear that you had not been bribed but they would find you being a furrier wouldn't
it?

JOAQUIN MILLER WILL SPEAK ABOUT ASIATICS

Joaquin Miller will speak at California College tonight. His subject, "Rendezvous to Caesar: The Things That Are Caesars," permits him the opportunity for some plain talking on the Asiatic question. He has promised not to mention matters and some sensational utterances are predicted by those who are acquainted with the poet's plan for this lecture.
Tickets may be secured at the college.
The lecture will be given in Mary Stuart Hall.

WIFE CANNOT CHANGE HER MIND, SAYS JUDGE

Judge Ogden sitting in the Superior Court yesterday ruled that an interlocutory decree of divorce cannot be reversed as an option on final separation to be left, or set aside, according to the mind of the petitioner. This case in point was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis against her husband William Ellis whom she sued a year ago on the ground of extreme cruelty.
After obtaining the interlocutory decree Mrs. Ellis listened to her husband's pleading and decided to give him another chance. Things went on in a satisfactory way until just a week or so ago
when another rupture occurred and Mrs.
Ellis renewed her spots for all time.
Saying that the interlocutory decree was about up Mrs. Ellis then decided to ask the court to ratify the final papers and grant her freedom. Judge Ogden however decided that the offenses committed by the husband had been committed by the wife and said that it was an imposition on the law in view of the fact that the pair have children to perpetuate Mrs. Ellis to change her mind again.

He decided that Mrs. Ellis petition for a final separation.

CITY CHEMIST HAS TWO DAIRYMEN ARRESTED

AT AMPHID, Oct. 25.—City Chemist M.
C. Smith, having yesterday secured a warrant for the arrest of M. T. Colledge, a driver of the Jersey Creamery and Edward Spelt of the Island Creamery for carrying illegal impure milk on their wagons. Both creameries concerned are located on Park street. The Board of Health is conducting a crusade against milk dealers selling impure milk.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

We breathe the germs and microbes of Malaria into our lungs and they are soon absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the system.
Then we begin to feel "out of sorts," no appetite or energy, dull headaches, a tired, sleepy feeling, and often "dumb chills" and slight fever show that this insidious disease is affecting the entire health. As the trouble progresses and the blood becomes more deeply polluted, boils and abscesses, sores and ulcers or brown spots appear on the skin. As Malaria is a blood disease to cure it requires a blood purifier, and S. S. S. is recognized as the best of blood purifiers. S. S. S. destroys the germs with which the blood is loaded and rids the system of Malaria. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease in the right way by removing every vestige of the cause and building up the blood from a weak, watery, germ-infected stream to a rich, healthful fluid, nourishing and vitalizing every part of the body by its purity. S. S. S. tones up every part of the system by its fine tonic effects, and being made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks it is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

INITIAL TRAIN ON NEW ROAD

Freight Sent Over Western Pacific Tracks From New Hope to Stockton

STOCKTON, Oct. 25.—The Western Pacific road between Stockton and New Hope a small shipping center in the extreme northern part of San Joaquin county, is complete and yesterday
the first ship out of commercial freight to pass over any portion of the company's line reached Stockton from New Hope. It consisted of three cars of wool packed at New Hope and was shipped to Williams & Co., prominent wool buyers and exporters of the city.
The freight arrived in Western Pacific cars hauled by a Western Pacific locomotive and the entire trip was made over the new graded Western Pacific track. In the cars were approximately 120 sacks of wool or four to five carriage shipment being valued at about $4,000. The freight left New Hope for Stockton yesterday morning.

The Western Pacific is not yet prepared to do a general freight business but as the line is completed between the two points named, it was found convenient to make the shipment of three cars of wool. Stockton is one of the supply centers for the new road and daily large consignments of ties, rails and bridge steel and timber are stored away in the extensive yards northwest of the city.

POLICE MYSTIFIED AS TO HONOLULU FUGITIVE

It looks as if Detective Harry Green will be deprived of the ocean voyage which the police department had practically promised him when the news was received of the capture of Abdulla Kahn, the fugitive Hindu in Honolulu. Captain of Detectives Petersen had announced his intention of sending Green to bring back the man who is wanted here on a charge of embezzling $235 from fellow countrymen in this city. Yesterday afternoon, however, a cablegram was received from the Hawaiian police reading: "Do not send officer too late."
No explanation has followed as yet, and the police do not know whether Kahn has escaped or whether the island police have shipped him back by some method all their own.
